Stay warm from the New England cold by checking out this month’s newsletter. Learn about our collections from sunny Florida, take a trip to the Society for Historical Archaeology annual meeting, or see how the Peabody’s collections storage is like moving a sliding tile puzzle. We hope you enjoy reading as much as we enjoy sharing!

Florida Collections at the Peabody
Contributed by Ryan Wheeler

Explore the Peabody’s Florida collections contributed by archaeologist, Clarence Birdseye. Read on to learn more about Birdseye’s excavations and how these artifacts found their way to the Peabody.

The Peabody at the SHAs
Contributed by Lindsay Randall

The Peabody hosted a table at the Society for Historical Archaeology’s (SHA) Public Archaeology event on Saturday, January 11th at the Boston Public Library. The Peabody, alongside a handful of other museums, presented fun, hands-on activities for conference attendees, families, and other visitors. Read on for more information on these.

Moving the Big Ones
Contributed by Marla Taylor

The Peabody’s large groundstones made a BIG move in collection storage. Learn more about the groundstone collection and where in the Peabody they are now.
