Stay warm from the New England cold by checking out this month’s newsletter. Learn about our collections from sunny Florida, take a trip to the Society for Historical Archaeology annual meeting, or learn how the Peabody’s collections storage is like a sliding tile puzzle. We hope you enjoy reading as much as we enjoy sharing!

Florida Collections at the Peabody
Contributed by Ryan Wheeler
Explore the Peabody’s Florida collections contributed by archaeologist, Clarence Birdseye. Birdseye, along with a handful of other museum professionals, visited the Peabody along with other museums and attended the conference to learn more about the collections and how these artifacts found their way to the Peabody.

The Peabody at the SHAs
Contributed by Lindsay Randall
The Peabody hosted a table at the Society for Historical Archaeology’s (SHA) Public Archaeology event on Saturday, January 11th at the Boston Public Library. Attendees, families, and other visitors had the chance to learn more about the Peabody and its research as well as hands on activities to engage with them.

Moving the Big Ones
Contributed by Marla Taylor
The Peabody’s large groundstones made a BIG move in collection storage. Learn more about the groundstone collection and where in the Peabody they are now.
