Namaste dear friends,

Best wishes on this first day of February! Recently, many in the Hindu community honored the birth of Ma Saraswati, the Hindu goddess of creation, knowledge, music, art, wisdom, and learning. Embodied in the form of a river, we can imagine the ice melting in the Himalayan mountains and flowing down to... give rise to new beginnings along the path to the ocean. The earliest known mention of Ma Saraswati can be found in the Rigveda, orally transmitted over 5000 years ago.

Ma Saraswati continues to hold a significant place in our hearts today. In depictions of Her, we can see Her holding a book and a musical instrument called the Veena. To me, this expresses the need for active engagement in play (whether instruments, sports, life) as well as the importance of education and imagination. The animal that accompanies Ma Saraswati is a swan, representing discernment. If you have ever watched a swan select food from a muddy lake, then you will see their face doesn’t get mucky as they use their wisdom to only take what nourishes them. May we all be like the swan in taking only what nourishes us, nothing more, nothing less.

As I continue to reflect on Martin Luther King Jr.’s memorial day and the Celebration on Monday, I sit with the words of another activist similarly impacted by Gandhi’s Satyagraha movement - Vandana Shiva. She writes in the opening to her book Oneness Versus the 1%: Shattering Illusions, Seeding Freedom:

“What is it to live, to be alive?
What is it to live well, to be well?
What is knowledge, what is intelligence?
What is ecology, what is economy?
What is freedom, what is democracy?
What is our future?”

Questions like these have been asked and answered many times, over lifetimes and eras. In approaching them now, we can turn to our inner wisdom guided by Ma Saraswati – infusing us with gifts of discernment and balance to help us find our way forward. In this light, I close with this prayer to support us in this sacred place between question and answer; it is a chant of gratitude and prayer that many recite to Ma Saraswati:

Sarasvati Namastubhyam Varade Kaama-Ruupinni |
Vidy[a-A]jarambam Karisyaami Siddhir-Bhavatu Me Sadaa ||5||
Salutations to Ma Saraswati, Who is the Giver of Boons and Fulfiller of Wishes, O Devi, As I Begin my Inquiries, Please Bestow on me the capacity of Right Understanding, always.

As we more fully enter the spring semester, how will you discern your path of studies and extracurriculars at Tufts? What practices do you include in your day to help you know what nourishes you?

Dhanyavaadah and best wishes,
Preeta Banerjee
Hindu Chaplain

---

Chaplain Spotlight: Anthony Cruz Pantojas, Humanist Chaplain

Our Humanist Chaplain Anthony Cruz Pantojas will be the keynote speaker at the Ripple Conference hosted by Elon University. This student-led conference chose the theme "Stretching the Limits of Religious Identities" to center its reflections and conversations this year. Anthony will give their address entitled "Living in the Interstices: Spiritual Reflections from a Queer Afro-Caribbean Humanist" on Feb. 17. You can
Anthony Cruz Pantojas, Humanist Chaplain

Upcoming Signature Programs

MLK Day of Community Action
RSVP by Thursday, February 2, at 11:59 p.m.
Saturday, February 4, at 11:00 a.m. - 5:30 p.m. at Alumnae Lounge
How can we channel our revolutionary spirits to create change? Join the Interfaith Ambassador Team of the University Chaplaincy for the 2023 MLK Day of Community Action for community building, workshops on MLK’s legacy in modern activism, and direct action. Together, we will explore our own roles in the fight for change through the lens of carceral and food justice. Engage in service and advocacy opportunities with Concord Prison Outreach and Ending Hunger New England to address these issues in our very own metro Boston neighborhoods and beyond. Locally sourced lunch and dinner meals will be provided. Registration is required and closes at 11:59 p.m. on Thursday, February 2. For questions, please contact University Chaplain Elyse Nelson Winger.

Register for the Day of Community Action

Religious and Philosophical Programs

Tufts Hillel is hosting a FREE afterschool program for McGlynn and Andrews Middle Schoolers!

Engineering: Tuesdays 3:30-4:45pm
Arts: Thursdays 3:30-4:45pm
Tutoring On Both Days

Hillel Community Action Partners (HCAP) is excited to offer hands-on, exciting activities for students that align with Medford learning objectives. These sessions are led by Tufts students and are open to middle schoolers of all backgrounds.
Tufts Hillel Afterschool Program
At Tufts Hillel; Various Times Available

Tufts students come to Tufts Hillel, where they are available to help students with their homework assignments. No previous tutoring experience or work with children is necessary. Hillel Community Action Partners (HCAP) provides all supplies required by student volunteers. In addition to weekly programming, HCAP will host a final event in May to showcase student work (date/time TBD), in which volunteers are welcomed and encouraged to attend. Those interested should fill out this form, which has more information. Feel free to direct questions regarding the program to student leader Benjamin Silver. HCAP is also happy to provide names of Tufts students who have previously tutored.

Humanist Community General Interest Meeting
Thursday, February 2, at 6:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m. at Interfaith Center (58 Winthrop St)
Join us for weekly reflections on topics such as death, ego, aging, religion, time, and more. All are welcome. Snacks will be provided. Humanism is a secular philosophy that aims to provide a space for the sharing of ideas surrounding the human experience, such as ethics, identity, spirituality, power, and life itself. If you have any questions please contact Humanist Chaplain Anthony Cruz Pantojas.

True Colors Spring General Interest Meeting
Tuesday, February 7, at 7:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m at the LGBT Center (226 College Ave)

True Colors, the LGBT Center and University Chaplaincy’s queer student group, will be having our spring GIM. True Colors is open to all LGBTQ+ and questioning students of all faith, religious, or philosophical identities (including none at all!). We will be crafting, playing board games, catching up, and discussing our upcoming semester plans. Meeting every other Tuesday!
We are excited to welcome Boston-based activists and filmmakers Calvin Lee and Marisa Prince to campus. They are a Korean and Black sibling(esque) duo, bonded together in the belly of white, wealthy, conservative Evangelical spaces, who represent a growing number wrestling with the Church's history of power, abuse, oppression and discrimination. Join us for worship and dinner, centered around a discussion of their short film Are We There YET? Learn more at https://www.wearegospel.world/.

Resources, Scholarships, and Opportunities
Project Connect with Counselling and Mental Health Services
Apply Now

Friendships can help buffer against the daily stressors of school and life. But building a social network can be tough, and we want to help! Project Connect is designed to help Tufts students build meaningful connections. register here to learn more.
Tisch Scholar Applications
Due Wednesday, February 15

The Tisch Scholars is a unique leadership development program that combines academic coursework, fieldwork in local communities, skill-building, and critical reflection. Scholars acquire the values, knowledge, and skills they need to address pressing social issues and effect meaningful change while building a supportive community to strengthen civic engagement at Tufts University and beyond. Apply and learn more here

Info sessions:
- January 25, 6:00 PM, Barnum Room 100
- February 7, 3:00 PM, Virtual - register here
- February 13, 4:00 PM, Barnum Room 100
Full-School Town Hall
Friday, February 3, 5:00 p.m. at Joyce Cumming Center (JCC) Room 160

Tufts Community Union (TCU) Senate is hosting a town hall February 3rd centered around Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Justice. TCU has invited a panel of staff, faculty and administrators with the goal of facilitating a Q&A discussion. Scan the QR code to submit feedback/questions to shape the conversation!
Sasha Sabherwal, CHAT Postdoctoral Fellow
Wednesday, February 8, 12:00 p.m. at the Fung House (48 Professors Row)

Join Center for the Humanities at Tufts (CHAT) Postdoctoral Fellow Sasha Sabherwal as she discusses "Collective Fictions of Caste: Unsettling Caste, Gender, and Religion in the Sikh Diaspora of the Transnational Pacific Northwest."

Upcoming Religious Celebrations and Observances

These events are drawn from the multifaith calendar maintained by the Office of Religious and Spiritual Life at Harvard Divinity School. To see more upcoming religious holidays and festivals, please follow the link to the Harvard Divinity School calendar.

Imbolc
Wed., Feb. 1, 2023
Tradition: Wicca/Paganism
The first fertility festival, celebrating the approach of spring and the growth of light in the darkness.

Tu B'Shevat
Tradition: Judaism
A celebration of the new year of the trees, one of the new years in the Jewish calendar.

Nirvana Day
Wed., Feb. 15, 2023
Tradition: Buddhism
In the northern tradition, it commemorates the parinirvana of the Buddha. In cultures of Southeast Asia, the Buddha's parinirvana is remembered during Wesak. The dates and names of Buddhist celebrations vary significantly among cultures and communities.

Support the University Chaplaincy
Supporting dynamic programs at Tufts University in religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life is easy and vital to our work. To donate, please click on the button below. Thank you for your generosity.

Give Today

ABOUT US
The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of the Tufts community. We provide pastoral care, support religious and philosophical communities, educate about spiritual and ethical issues in society and the world, and promote multifaith engagement.

Tufts University Chaplaincy | Goddard Chapel, 3 The Green | Medford, MA 02155 US
chaplaincy.tufts.edu | chaplaincy@tufts.edu | 617.627.3427

Subscribe to our email list.