The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of Catholic Christian observance in memory of all the faithful who are deceased. In some Latin cultures, this day is Monday, November 2.

Mawlid an-Nabi (Ryu’un-ken) is a teacher in the Sanbo Zen school, based in Kamakura, Japan, and is a Guiding Teacher at the Rev. Dr. Pauli Murray fiercely challenged social, political, and religious powers in the quest for equality for A Saint for All Saints: A Conversation on the Life and Legacy of the Rev. Dr. Pauli Murray great resume builder. Please email 17 through Friday, October 30. Find more election-related news, research, and resources on the new register to vote in Massachusetts or in their home state, and the Massachusetts deadline to register to vote is Help That Actually Works--A True Story

Spatial Toolkits of White Supremacy

Koru Mindfulness Half-day Retreat

Ableism, Access & Inclusion at Tufts with Learning Specialist Kate Pillette

You can find more information about our weekly gatherings and student group meetings on our Check in with a Chaplain #TuftsGivingTuesday

A note from our Africana Spirituality Advisor Upcoming Religious Holidays and Festivals

The Breakfast Club: Faculty/Staff bible Study and Prayer Group

Ableism, Access & Inclusion at Tufts with Learning Specialist Kate Pillette

A Saint for All Saints: A Conversation on the Life and Legacy of the Rev. Dr. Pauli Murray great resume builder. Please email 17 through Friday, October 30. Find more election-related news, research, and resources on the new register to vote in Massachusetts or in their home state, and the Massachusetts deadline to register to vote is Help That Actually Works--A True Story

Spatial Toolkits of White Supremacy

Koru Mindfulness Half-day Retreat

Ableism, Access & Inclusion at Tufts with Learning Specialist Kate Pillette

You can find more information about our weekly gatherings and student group meetings on our Check in with a Chaplain #TuftsGivingTuesday

A note from our Africana Spirituality Advisor Upcoming Religious Holidays and Festivals