The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of the Tufts community. We offer a variety of programs and events to support the diverse religious/spiritual traditions of our community. The chaplaincy is here for you, no matter where you are in the world or how you are doing in this time.

- Saturday, November 14: Catholic Christian observance in memory of all the faithful who are deceased. In some Latin cultures, this day is known as All Souls Day. It is a day to remember and pray for the deceased.

- Saturday, October 31: The birthday of the Prophet Muhammed. Begins at sundown. This is an important day in the Islamic calendar, marking the birth of the Prophet Muhammed.

- Monday, October 26, 4:30 p.m. ET: Freedom and Responsibility in Public Life: A Panel for the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Boston’s Twelfth Annual Justice Convocation. This event will feature talks and discussions on various topics related to human rights and social justice.

- Thursday, November 5, 7:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. ET: The season of Advent often passes us by without much notice. It arrives between Thanksgiving and Christmas, an important time to reflect on the coming of Christ. Join us for the "O Antiphons," ancient words traditionally sung during Advent to invoke thanks and praise, lament and longing, for the coming of Christ. Thursdays, 8:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m. ET, October 8 through November 18.

- New episodes on Fridays: Check out the new Tufts Hillel podcast, Being & Becoming, featuring conversations around Jewish spirituality and culture. New episodes will be available every Friday.

- Friday, November 13, 6:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m. ET: The Rev. Dr. Pauli Murray fiercely challenged social, political, and religious powers in the quest for equality for all. Join us for "A Saint for All Saints: A Conversation on the Life and Legacy of the Rev. Dr. Pauli Murray." This event will provide an opportunity to reflect on the contributions of Dr. Pauli Murray and her impact on the fight for justice and equality.

- Monday, October 26, 4:30 p.m. ET: A Saint for All Saints: A Conversation on the Life and Legacy of the Rev. Dr. Pauli Murray. Dr. Pauli Murray was a civil rights activist, lawyer, and educator who fought for social justice and equality for all. This event will provide an opportunity to reflect on the contributions of Dr. Pauli Murray and her impact on the fight for justice and equality.

- Wednesday, November 4 at 7 p.m. ET: Wisdom Dharma Chats will be held on Wednesday evenings. Each session will include a short teaching and meditation practice. Liberation Lunches are also available for those who are interested in engaging in discussions on various topics related to spiritual and ethical living.

- Saturday, October 30: Liberation Lunches are available for those who are interested in engaging in discussions on various topics related to spiritual and ethical living.

- Thursday, November 5, 7:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. ET: Liberation Lunches are available for those who are interested in engaging in discussions on various topics related to spiritual and ethical living.

- Monday, October 26, 4:30 p.m. ET: A Saint for All Saints: A Conversation on the Life and Legacy of the Rev. Dr. Pauli Murray. Dr. Pauli Murray was a civil rights activist, lawyer, and educator who fought for social justice and equality for all. This event will provide an opportunity to reflect on the contributions of Dr. Pauli Murray and her impact on the fight for justice and equality.

Access*Inclusion at Tufts is an ongoing series of programs and workshops designed to raise awareness and promote understanding of issues related to race, gender, disability, and more. The series is open to the entire Tufts community and aims to foster a more inclusive and equitable campus environment. If you are interested in attending any of these events, please contact Walker Bristol, Humanist Chaplain, at chaplaincy@tufts.edu. You can also find more information online.

- A Saint for All Saints: A Conversation on the Life and Legacy of the Rev. Dr. Pauli Murray
- Freedom and Responsibility in Public Life: A Panel for the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Boston’s Twelfth Annual Justice Convocation
- The season of Advent often passes us by without much notice. It arrives between Thanksgiving and Christmas, an important time to reflect on the coming of Christ. Join us for the "O Antiphons," ancient words traditionally sung during Advent to invoke thanks and praise, lament and longing, for the coming of Christ. Thursdays, 8:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m. ET, October 8 through November 18.
- New episodes on Fridays: Check out the new Tufts Hillel podcast, Being & Becoming, featuring conversations around Jewish spirituality and culture. New episodes will be available every Friday.
- Friday, November 13, 6:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m. ET: The Rev. Dr. Pauli Murray fiercely challenged social, political, and religious powers in the quest for equality for all. Join us for "A Saint for All Saints: A Conversation on the Life and Legacy of the Rev. Dr. Pauli Murray." This event will provide an opportunity to reflect on the contributions of Dr. Pauli Murray and her impact on the fight for justice and equality.
- Monday, October 26, 4:30 p.m. ET: A Saint for All Saints: A Conversation on the Life and Legacy of the Rev. Dr. Pauli Murray. Dr. Pauli Murray was a civil rights activist, lawyer, and educator who fought for social justice and equality for all. This event will provide an opportunity to reflect on the contributions of Dr. Pauli Murray and her impact on the fight for justice and equality.
- Wednesday, November 4 at 7 p.m. ET: Wisdom Dharma Chats will be held on Wednesday evenings. Each session will include a short teaching and meditation practice. Liberation Lunches are also available for those who are interested in engaging in discussions on various topics related to spiritual and ethical living.
- Saturday, October 30: Liberation Lunches are available for those who are interested in engaging in discussions on various topics related to spiritual and ethical living.
- Thursday, November 5, 7:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. ET: Liberation Lunches are available for those who are interested in engaging in discussions on various topics related to spiritual and ethical living.
- Monday, October 26, 4:30 p.m. ET: A Saint for All Saints: A Conversation on the Life and Legacy of the Rev. Dr. Pauli Murray. Dr. Pauli Murray was a civil rights activist, lawyer, and educator who fought for social justice and equality for all. This event will provide an opportunity to reflect on the contributions of Dr. Pauli Murray and her impact on the fight for justice and equality.

We hope you find these programs and events interesting and informative. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to reach out to us. We are here to support you and help you navigate the challenges of the modern world.

Best regards,

Azmera Hamouri-Davis
University Chaplain

With warmth,

perseverance and genuine curiosity.

Our chaplains and advisors are here for you, no matter where you are in the world or how you are doing in this time. If you need support or guidance, please do not hesitate to reach out to us. We are here to listen and provide support.

Contact

chaplaincy@tufts.edu

Subscribe

If you would like to subscribe to our newsletter, please visit our website.

Give Today

You can make a donation to support our programs and events. Please visit our donation page for more information.

About Us

The University Chaplaincy is a multi-faith chaplaincy that serves all members of the Tufts community. We offer a variety of programs and events to support the diverse religious/spiritual traditions of our community.

Visit our website to learn more about our programs and events.