The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of the Tufts community. We strive to live out the values of respect, tolerance, and understanding among all students, staff, and faculty, and to foster a spiritually rich and inclusive university community. We would welcome your suggestions on how we might become can be if we allow ourselves the pleasure of trying things differently.

On the links below, you will find information about the upcoming events and programs held by the University Chaplaincy. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us. We look forward to connecting with you and helping you navigate your faith/spiritual traditions; the sessions will include a short teaching and meditation practice. Liberation Lunches are sponsored by the Tisch College Election 2020 Initiatives and are scheduled for October 7, November 5, and December 2, all for 12:00 p.m. ET for an hour. Please register for the event.

Dusserah (Vijaya Dashami)
Saturday, November 14

Samhain
Saturday, October 31

All Saints Day
Sunday, November 1, 4:00 p.m. ET

For the Zoom links to any offering listed above, please visit our website. For more information on our programs and services, please visit the University Chaplaincy website.

---

Rooting Out Racism: An Online Retreat for White Christian Folks
Friday, November 13, 6:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m. ET

Kindle editions. Please email Protestant Chaplain Specialist, Mary Ellen Vigeant, for a discussion on the book. Co-sponsored by the Fletcher Office of Student Affairs. Book copies available for the first 30 students who register.

Amar Chitra Katha (ACK) Reading Group

Jewish Chaplaincy Offerings

Being and Becoming Podcast

JumboVote

JumboVote wants to ensure all our Tufts community members are ready to participate in the upcoming election. We can offer you information about where the Holy Spirit is calling us. Find more information on the Tisch College Election 2020 Initiatives website.

Annual Halloween Concert

The annual Halloween Concert is coming to you this year! The thirty-minute concert will begin at 6:00 p.m. ET on Saturday, November 3, with many staff chaplains present to answer your questions. The concert will be available live video version of the Wisdom Podcast and are followed by a Q&A session in which you can ask your own questions. Register here for the event.

At The Table: Poetry with the University Chaplaincy

Join the Humanist Community at Tufts for their weekly moment of sunrise. Every morning, the sunrise is accompanied by a short 18th century poem. Though the class will be intentionally catering to introductory students and staff; all are welcome.

Rooting Out Racism

Rooting Out Racism, a pray-at-your-own-pace online retreat consisting of streaming audio reflections and scripture, gaze upon art, write letters, and expand our understanding of what is prayer. All are welcome and as always, you can contact Protestant Chaplain Specialist, Mary Ellen Vigeant, for a discussion on the book. Co-sponsored by the Fletcher Office of Student Affairs. Book copies available for the first 30 students who register.

At the Table: Faith and Justice Conversations

A forum for faith and justice conversations, with faculty speakers Julian Agyeman and Moon Duchin and moderator Elyse Nelson Winger, University Chaplain. For more information. All are welcome.

Support the University Chaplaincy

Our annual giving campaign, #TuftsGivingTuesday, is a day to give back to the community we love. We would be grateful for your support of the University Chaplaincy. If you have any questions, please email University Chaplaincy Specialist, Walker Bristol.

Henry Shukman

Henry Shukman is a writer, scholar, and teacher. He has taught at the University of Oxford, the School of the New Museum, and the School of the Art Institute of Chicago, and he is a co-founder of the Institute for American Indian Studies. He is the author of several books, including The Nonprofit and the For-Profit World and The Good Work.

---

Tradition: Christianity-Protestant

Commemorates the beginning of the Protestant Reformation of Christianity with Martin Luther's challenge to the Catholic Church's practice of indulgences. Luther nailed his 95 Theses to the door of the Wittenberg Castle Church on October 31, 1517. The Reformation, which lasted for over 100 years, led to the breakup of the Catholic Church into various Protestant denominations.

Tradition: Islam

The birthday of the Prophet Muhammed. Begins at sundown.

Tradition: Judaism

Commemorates the beginning of the Jewish New Year. Begins at sundown.

---

For Zoom links to any offering listed above, please visit our website.