February 2025

Dear Colleague,

Super news from the other side of the Atlantic this month!

Emerging Destinations is expanding into Türkiye and Greece with our new client, Fez Travel. They came highly recommended by a Canadian tour operator friend. Based in Istanbul, the company offers bespoke and scheduled group tours (guaranteed with two passengers). My personal goal is to rent a gulet with friends and cruise the Turkish coast!

Paula Newton from our team visited Marrakech in December, and if you haven't already viewed the webinar "8 Cool Days in Marrakech" you can find it here! Yadi Travel can also create a Morocco trip based on the Netflix show Hot Planet. Be sure to watch — the photography alone will make you want to explore this awesome North African country. Let us know if you want to review the itinerary.

Looking for somewhere to send your clients away from huge crowds in big cities? United Airlines now offers direct flights from Newark to Sicily three times a week. MiMalta can create a combined trip that includes Sicily and nearby Malta, which is just a short ferry ride away.

We're happy to schedule training seminars with our in-country teams in Malta, Morocco and Turkey to help with trip planning.

Happy Selling!

Jane, Ana, Jenna & Paula
