The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of the Tufts Community. Here are some highlights of their offerings:

- Tradition: Christianity-Roman Catholic
  - Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe
  - Temple
  - The Feast of Lights (Feast of Dedication) celebrated for eight days to commemorate the rededication of the Temple following the Jews' victory over occupying forces in 165 BCE, which re-established for a time their religious traditions.

- Upcoming Religious Holidays and Festivals
  - Bodhi Day
  - Tuesday, 12.8.2020
  - Bodhi Day
  - Community at Tufts by watching that week's previously recorded Mass. All are welcome.

- Nominations are now open for the 2021 Wendell Phillips Speaker auditions. Faculty, staff, and students may submit a two-minute video delivering a message to inspire the graduating class and reflect on how a Tufts education might help make the world a better place.

- Remarkable efficacy is nothing less than stunning. These promising updates are like the proverbial light at the end of a tunnel, leading up to Christmas Day. The period leading to Christmas involves a time of preparation where Christians dwell in the darkness, readying our hearts and spirits for the coming of the light.

- Countless others, it is not. Personally, I feel like I began observing Advent in March when the lockdown began. The season of Advent is overlaid – one about a culmination of effort and evaluation of progress and the other about anticipation, expectation, and looking towards the future with hope. Not a specific hope of this thing or that, but rather a long-view hope, a trust in the goodness of humanity and our shared natural candlelight. Each week, they explore questions and reflections on scripture, music, and art include centering questions and prayer prompts (sent out Monday, Tuesdays, 7:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. ET).

- Africana Spirituality Chaplaincy
  - Tuesdays, 7:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. ET
  - Africana Spirituality Community for close textual exploration and for an exploration of the Africana Spirituality.”
  - That weaves such heterogeneity together is a commitment to the deep commitment to the work.
  - Gift cards. A big thanks to Katie Moynihan and Katie Furie who have made this event possible with their vision and commitment.

- Our chaplains and advisors are here for you, no matter where you are in the world or how you are doing in this time.

- We plan to continue our interactive game and conclude with Ganesh puja and honoring of our graduates.
