The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of the Tufts University community. Throughout the year, the Chaplaincy offers a variety of events and resources, including weekly services such as Protestant Evening Worship (PEW) and Rhythm and Rituals: Sound Healing, as well as special events like the Visions of Peace Movie Screening.

This year marks the 115th anniversary of the Tufts University Chaplaincy founding. Join us in celebrating the growth and impact of the Chaplaincy over the years.

In these times, let us remember that our roots are interrelated. May the lights that illuminate the physical dimension also find the light within us to guide us. Read the beautifully written book "Aesthetics of the Soul: An Introduction to Mysticism" and explore the teachings of a range of religious traditions.

Celebrates the anniversary of the appointment of 'Abdu'l-Baha, the son of Baha'u'llah, as the Center of the Cause of God. These events are drawn from the multifaith calendar maintained by the Office of Religious and Spiritual Life at Tufts University. Please visit our website for more information and how to join these events.

This fall, the Tufts University Art Galleries (TUAG) is showing "Ecologies of Acknowledgment," a collaborative exhibition, which opened on Sept. 8, 2020, and will remain until March 2021, features a video installation and a framing letterpress print that consider the process of writing an impactful and lasting land acknowledgment.

This event is sponsored by the Office of Religious and Spiritual Life and the Office of Diversity and Inclusion.

The Graduate School of Arts and Sciences (GSAS) Community Fellows invite you to a night of community and conversation on November 18, 2020, 8:00 p.m. ET. The event is called Creating Our Future: Ritual, Race and Religion in America. The event is open to the public and you can register for the event here.

For Zoom links to any offering listed above, please visit our website.

Thank you for your generosity. To donate, please click on the button below. Support the University Chaplaincy.