Introducing ENTP 340: Inclusive Innovation
RSVP by November 16th. Please provide an email with your registration to receive the event Zoom link.

These women are supportive, inspiring, and inclusive: smart, creative, disruptive women who are using social media to make an impact. The first show on the platform is Ladies of Influence (LOI), an edgy and fun new series promoting multimedia content in the areas of personal and professional growth. The first show is hosted by Academy Award winner and activist Angelou, Professor Elie Wiesel, Starbucks CEO Howard Schultz, Kobe Bryant, and hundreds of fascinating people, including President Barack Obama, Dr. Maya Angelou, and Ted Oppenheimer.

Please enjoy this newsletter and join us as we tour the OC, celebrate Global Entrepreneurship Week, and launch inclusive innovation.

Although we continue to be physically separated, our faculty has worked hard to forge relationships and make purposeful connections this semester so that students can engage with ENTP content and feel connected to our program. Our students are always at the heart of everything we do in ENTP.

The desire and drive of our ENTP students to meaningfully contribute to the world in a positive change, creativity, collaboration, and learning.

Even virtually, the ENTP program continues to focus on student growth and making every effort to maintain the authentic student-teacher and student-student community. Our faculty has been working hard to provide services and resources to support student perspectives and learning experiences, and we hope to continue to do so.

Please enjoy the template and learn more about our INP, who is leading entrepreneurial and social entrepreneurship.
