Fall Colors, Fun, and Bobcat Friendships Ahead!
Bobcats Section Chair Musings – September 24, 2025
The autumn equinox has passed, and fall is officially here! The high country is bursting with color – not just the aspens, but cottonwoods and so many others will soon be glowing gold and orange. The crisp mornings, shorter days, and the first dustings of snow are all reminders that it's time to dust off the snowshoes, microspikes, and skis. I, for one, can't wait to get out on some cooler-weather adventures – and I hope you're just as excited!
We also pause to remember Rich McAdams, a true CMC legend and dear friend to many. His Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, October 4th, from 3–5 pm at CMC Basecamp in Golden. If you plan to attend, please RSVP on the CMC website so we can make sure there's a chair waiting for you.
And now for something to lift our spirits – the annual Bobcats Potluck Picnic is just around the corner! Join us on Saturday, October 11th at 11 am at Tanglewood Park South in Lakewood for good food, fun games, and plenty of time to connect with your fellow Bobcats. Bring a dish to share, and if you plan to attend, please RSVP on the CMC website so we can make sure there's a chair waiting for you. Get ready to laugh, mingle, and maybe even show off your competitive side in some lighthearted activities!
Looking forward to seeing you on the trail – or at the picnic!
