F&CS joins others at Tulsa Juneteenth Festival, Tulsa Pride

Family & Children’s Services staff provided essential resources and interacted with attendees at the Tulsa Juneteenth Festival and the Tulsa Pride 2023 events as part of outreach. READ STORY

The Party: Just Wear White celebrates successful event

The Party: Just Wear White, one of Tulsa’s most unique fundraising events, raised $434,000 for Family & Children’s Services on June 2. This festive outdoor celebration was set under the Tulsa skyline at ONEOK Field and featured a neon jungle theme. READ STORY

Parenting in Jail for Men unites fathers with their families

Through a program called Parenting in Jail for Men, offered by Family & Children’s Services (F&CS), Justin continues to connect with his young family and receives parenting education. READ STORY
Incarceration
A program in Tulsa, Oklahoma, has been changing lives for addicted women and their children. Here’s how it works. READ STORY

Social media’s harmful impact subject of advisory Conveyed with a sense of urgency, a new national advisory on the harmful impact of social media on youth mental health hopefully can inspire a more united effort for solutions, officials say. READ STORY

Screen Time: Parents Can Be Proactive with Screen Use
Rather than throw your hands up in the air or come down hard on the kids, consider setting yourself up for screen-time success with a plan for summertime screen use. READ STORY

Dr. Lahr provides advice on signs of trauma to community
Dr. Steven Lahr of Family & Children's Services spoke to the KOTV - News On 6 team this month about the signs of trauma following the aftermath of tragic circumstances. READ STORY

IN THE MEDIA

CLICK TO LEARN MORE

It's okay to ask for help. 918.744.9500

myStrength | Community Subscription

FRIENDS of F&CS LIVESTRONG