June 2025

A word from Bobcat Chair Jim Guerra

Ah June! Warmer weather and melting snow shifts our attention from avalanche awareness, snowshoeing, microspikes and yes post-holing to summer activities and their own safety concerns. Thunderstorms (National Park Service lightning safety article) , Wildfires and Scrambling. See entire article HERE

Good information from Chris Larson

Rocky Mountain National Park Timed Entry:
From now until mid-October, timed entry permits are required for Bear Lake Road from 5am to 6pm and the rest of the park from 9am to 2pm. Details:
https://www.nps.gov/romo/planyourvisit/timed-entry-permit-system.htm
Buy a permit:
https://www.recreation.gov/timed-entry/10086910

Brainard Lake parking permits:
The road to upper trailhead parking lots (Long Lake, Mitchell Lake, and Niwot) are not scheduled to open until July 1st.
A parking reservation is required to park in Brainard Lake Recreation Area. There is no reservation required to park at the Gateway Trailhead and enter Brainard Lake Recreation Area by foot/bike, but there is a $10 day use fee. Please see recreation.gov for all fees and additional information. Visitors with a senior, access, or annual pass receive a discount on parking reservations during checkout at recreation.gov, but they still must purchase a reservation.

Who are the Bobcats?
The Bobcats' mission is to ensure a variety of adventurous CMC trips, mostly on weekdays, all year long. Our trips tend to be faster-paced, on more challenging routes, and with fewer stops. We foster a strong community of hikers seeking challenge, discovery and camaraderie.
