Travel & Entertainment Resource Guide
Do you have a hard time keeping track of all the Travel & Entertainment (T&E) related resources? The Travel & Entertainment Resource Guide spreadsheet was created to have one sole place where all of our resources can be located. We encourage all of you to bookmark this spreadsheet on your browser of choice and to share the link with your department!

The spreadsheet includes an infographic that highlights an overview of the trip and/or event process. As well as links to our resources (Blink pages, Knowledge Base Articles, Videos and Training), and a Troubleshooting tab. If you have suggestions on how to make this spreadsheet better, please submit a Services & Support case with your feedback.

Capital Project - FF&E (Furniture, Fixtures, and Equipment) Approval Workflow Change
Starting May 1, future projects created for FF&E capital project purchases should be created with the department’s Project Owning Organization with the associated Financial Unit. Currently, all capital project FF&E purchases are approved by a centralized department with FinU 9699908. For all newly created FF&E projects, those purchases should be approved by your department financial unit approver.
What transactions will be affected?

- Requisitions.
- Change Orders.
- Invoices.
- Cost Transfers.
- Concur Requests.

What is not changing? All existing capital projects will continue to be under FinU 9699908 and approved by the centralized department, journals, and Medical Center capital projects.

When requesting for capital project FF&E set-up, the Financial Unit Name and Code will need to be included.

To find your financial unit approver, go to: Business Analytics Hub (bah.ucsd.edu) > Budget & Finance > Campus User Roles. Search > Role Name Contains: <Financial Unit> Approver
Cost Transfers - Known Issues
There are two cost transfer issues that have been identified and reported to Oracle and are pending resolution. These issues are not widespread and there is no need to submit a services & support ticket at this time. The affected transactions will be fixed once Oracle provides a resolution; if corrections are needed before, please follow the workarounds outlined below.

- Transfers withdrawn but still transferred
  - User submits a cost transfer but then withdraws it, some (not all) transfers are still processed by the system after the withdrawal.
    - Workaround until resolution: Transfer any transactions that were processed inadvertently back to the original project. You can use the Transfer Workflow Details report on the Project Cost Transfer panorama to search for any transfers in AH-Withdrawn status that you’ve submitted in the last couple months.

- Transfers approved but stuck in pending approval status
  - User submits a cost transfer, it is approved by a workflow group approver but it still shows as pending approval in Oracle and is not transferred.
    - Workaround until resolution: Cancel the transfer and resubmit. Use the Transfer Workflow Details report to see status of transfers you’ve submitted, look for any that show “approved” on the workflow row and “pending approval” on the adjustment history line.
Generate Invoices Job
The regularly scheduled "Generate Invoices" job runs at 6am, 10am and 2pm daily PST. For the past few weeks, several contracts have been affected by an Oracle issue which caused draft & submitted invoices to be deleted or not generated at all.

Oracle identified a fix, which was pushed into PROD last Friday, 4/21.

If you still do not see a draft invoice upon successful run of the job, please let us know by opening a Services and Support ticket.

If you still see this happening after 4/21, please report it via S&S.

Outstanding Credit Card Charges
As announced in last week’s digest, the Outstanding Credit Card charge report is live in the Business Analytics Hub (BAH). A new Blink page has been published with guidance and helpful links to refer to for common reconciliation questions.

As a reminder, this report contains detailed information for Procurement Card, Travel and Entertainment Card, and centrally billed airfare/hotel charges that are awaiting action from a cardholder/traveler or a department approver. These charges have been received by Concur from the university’s bank but have not yet posted in Oracle.

The report contains the following pages:

1. Aged Transactions – Lists all credit card charges that are nearing 365 days past the date the charge was posted to UC San Diego by the bank.
2. Unassigned Card Charges – Lists all credit card charges that have not yet been assigned to an expense report in Concur.
3. Charges by Cardholder – Lists all outstanding credit card charges regardless of credit card posting date.

Please use this report to identify and reconcile outstanding card charges. In preparation for fiscal closing, we recommend starting with the expenses on the Aged Transactions page as those are a focus for clean-up and possible charge off to default projects starting June 15th.

Additional Concur Reports Coming Soon!
We’re excited to announce that next week three additional reports displaying data from Concur will be launching! Reports will feature data from Concur expense reports, credit card transactions, and cardholder information. Changing Project Dates Using PADUA
In order to change general project start and end dates, you must edit the task dates. Changes made to task dates are automatically applied to the project. The project will reflect the earliest start date and latest end date (if multiple tasks exist with varying dates).

When closing a project, you must first change the end date (if needed) before changing the status to Closed. If you change the status to Closed first, you will not be able to make any edits until you change the status back to Active.
