Oracle Procurement: Better Search Options One-Click Away in Jan 2023

Oracle Procurement will look a little different in the New Year. We're moving a few things around to make it easier for you to locate and access the Advanced Search feature, which offers a cleaner search interface, filtering options on product flags, and links to peer-reviewed papers. Once the changes go live in January 2023, links to Advanced Search and All Punchouts will appear more prominently on the Oracle Procurement homepage and the standard search bar will be removed. After launch, you will need to click on one of these search options to initiate a search: Advanced Search or All Punchouts. Stay tuned for more updates in 2023!
