Dear Colleague,

As we head into the Independence Day holiday in the U.S., I have to say that freedom is feeling terrific.

Our clients on the African continent — Cheli & Peacock Safaris, The Elewana Collection, SkySafari, Anantara Southern Africa, Adventure Consults and EcoTraining — are all open for business and accepting guests again. Updates below!

Here at Emerging Destinations, we've already resumed in-person sales calls and will be representing Elewana at Virtuoso Week. Please let us know if you are back to accepting visitors — we hope to schedule sales trips for August and September. And of course, we can always do local calls in Georgia.

As always, we're here to assist you in any way possible. Jessie is manning the office until 1st July, as Ana, Jenna and I are currently in the Galapagos and Ecuador with our new client Enchanted Expeditions.

Happy selling!

Kenya Reaches Rhino Milestone — No Poaching in 2020

With improvements made to rhino monitoring, tighter security operations, as well as closer relationships with local communities and stronger collaborations with law enforcement agencies, Kenya Wildlife Service and the Elewana Collection are pleased to confirm that there were no rhino poaching incidents in the whole country in 2020.

Whether it's exploring the coastal dunes or diving the offshore waters, Anantara Bazaruto Island Resort can tune you into the wild side of Mozambique's paradise isle on the Indian Ocean

Located in an archipelago of the same name on the southern Mozambique coast, the resort is all about getting back to nature...

Elewana Tortilis Camp

Straight from the editing room...a brand new video on Elewana Tortilis Camp that highlights luxury food, accommodation and service at one of Kenya's top safari camps as well as the park's incredible wildlife, and the views of snowcapped Kilimanjaro that guests can savor from their tents or the camp bar and dining area.

East Africa Tops Best National Parks Survey

Cheli + Peacock Safaris is proud to announce that two of their most popular safari destinations — Serengeti in Tanzania and neighboring Masa Mara in Kenya — finished No. 1 and No. 3 respectively in a TripAdvisor survey of the globe's best national parks.

Two other Tanzanian parks — Kilimanjaro at No. 12 and Tarangire at No. 14 — placed in the TripAdvisor top 15.

Amboseli Sopa Lodge

Set in 200 acres of private land on the outskirts of Amboseli National Park — and with a rustic charm all of its own — the lodge nestles in the foothills of Mount Kilimanjaro.

As the crow flies, Amboseli Sopa is just 18 miles from the mountain's snowy double summit. The lodge is also close to the Kimana Sanctuary, a private conservancy that provides a vital wildlife corridor between Amboseli and Tsavo National Parks.
