This email was sent to...

Fairfax, VA | 22030 US

4400 University Drive Exploratory Hall 3200

Share this email:

K. Congratulations to all the Mason students!

Michael Bowen, Kevin Eastridge, Mary Jimenez, Natasha Latouf, and Caitlin students Justin Wittrock, Kevin Collins, and Patrick Newman, undergraduate students the more the data matches the red curve, the better. The "light curves" are shifted mission data taken in space). You can tell the quality of the data from the scatter of the...

Cancer Institute of New Jersey and Mason's Center for Applied Proteomics and Microbiology released a paper by Professor Ancha Baranova and affiliated faculty MMR Vaccine and its Effects on COVID-19

Access to Excellence Podcast. Click below to access the episode!

Mason announced that it is introducing a rapid-result, saliva based COVID-19 test that...

2. Her team collaborates with several national and international academic and efforts geared towards development of therapeutics and vaccines against SARS-CoV-

Prof. Knight has testified in several circuit court trials involving crimes such as...

In addition, she has attended various biology workshops around the country and has presentations regarding her research at both the American Academy of Forensic...

As Mason's scientific research efforts strive to impact a healthy environment, healthy economy, healthy people, and healthy society, we will continually update you on our...

If you have a question you'd like us to answer in a future newsletter, please write to us!

In this Issue

Events and Announcements

Student Highlights

Mason Science in the News

If you were not able to join us for the live event, a recording will be...

Dr. Chi Yang

*The George Mason University Foundation is a registered 501 (c)(3), EIN: 54-1603842.

Subscribe