Funds will be going to Foster Mercy. Foster Mercy is an organization that helps kids in the foster system get challenges such as a little windy weather, but it was a success. Customers came from all over town to shop.

She was excited and enthusiastic but admits that as a Mary Ahern Namaste, from SNAP-Ed

Save the date development opportunity.

Teachers can register for classroom materials, lunch, and a thumb drive. The registration deadline is Monday, February 7, 2022. Seeds and transplants, various vegetable crops, and MORE on a tour at the Yuma Ag Center on Friday, February 18, teachers will have the opportunity to learn more about dates, H2A workers, harvesting, packing and distribution, opportunity for teachers that is being offered in partnership with SWag Into Spring Workshops!

Gigette Aja Webb STEM Education Agricultural Literacy and master gardeners have already seen the new equipment. Larger storage sheds for agricultural and Master Gardener equipment. A new greenhouse and hoophouse are integrated to provide for improved higher quality displays and audience participation.

While Extension activities are limited around the office, upgrades are being made to enhance our future deliveries require participants to be safely distanced and properly masked. The UArizona requires that surgical masks or other face coverings be worn by all participants. The UArizona is committed to creating a safe and healthy environment for everyone.

The Arizona 4-H Livestock Show and Expo is made possible by the partnership with Showman's LLC with support from the Arizona State Fair Foundation. Clinics will also be provided to help youth to grow in their project Mastery. Livestock Shows, Clinics and Contests. The Arizona 4-H program will be holding their inaugural Arizona 4-H Livestock Show and Expo, March 4-6, 2022, at the Pima County Fairgrounds in Tucson. The event will be a convening of Arizona 4-H youth who participate in various 4-H programs and their families. The event will include livestock judging, animal husbandry demonstrations, and awards ceremonies. The event will also feature various educational workshops and vendors.

The Arizona 4-H Livestock Show and Expo is a unique opportunity for participants to showcase their skills and knowledge in livestock production, and to learn from others in the industry. The event will feature livestock judging, animal husbandry demonstrations, and awards ceremonies. The event will also feature various educational workshops and vendors.

The Arizona 4-H Livestock Show and Expo is a unique opportunity for participants to showcase their skills and knowledge in livestock production, and to learn from others in the industry. The event will feature livestock judging, animal husbandry demonstrations, and awards ceremonies. The event will also feature various educational workshops and vendors.