Tradition: Hinduism

Ramanavami is an annual Hindu festival celebrated by widows in India. It marks the birthday of Lord Rama, son of King Dasaratha and brother of Sita, Lakshmana, and Bharata. It is often celebrated for nine days and is a time for devotees to worship the Lord and seek his blessings.

In Orthodox churches, the first day of Lent marks the beginning of the Great Fast, the final six weeks of the church year. This period of fasting and prayer prepares the faithful for the celebration of Easter, which commemorates Christ's resurrection from the dead.
