A Note from Your Executive Director

Dear NHF Colorado Community,

As we look back on 2019, I am proud of all that we have achieved together. We successfully navigated the challenges brought on by a global pandemic and are now embracing 2020 with optimism.

Incorporate healthy habits into your daily routine. This not only helps to maintain your physical health but also improves your mental well-being and quality of life.

El Jardin de Sangoma will be hosting a Hispanic Heritage Month Celebration on February 1:00pm-3:00pm at La mesa De las Nubes.

February 9th: National Hispanic Heritage Month Celebration at El Jardin de Sangoma.

February 15th: Dinner: Takeda at the Springs.

February 26-28th: Takeda Presents Sanger Days on the Slopes at Mayflower Gulch located in Frisco, CO.

March 29th: BACKPACK + BLEEDERS Information & Network Conference.

Are you new to Denver or the Bleeding Disorder Community?

TO CONNECT FAMILIES and achieve autonomy in the veteran role as someone who has accumulated knowledge and expertise in the field.

In the upcoming year, we will continue to work towards a world where no one with a bleeding disorder is left behind. Our mission remains unchanged: to connect families, advocates, and community members to discover and strengthen your outdoor adventure.

We challenge you to join your bleeding disorder community to step out into nature, to forage for the beauty and wonder of the world around us. We are here to help you every step of the way.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
Executive Director
