LEADERSHIP SPOTLIGHT

LEADERSHIP SPOTLIGHT: STACY KURKO, OUR NEWEST BOARD MEMBER!

Stacy Kurko with Jay Paul Company is our featured BOMA Leader and also our chapter’s newest Member-at-Large on the BOMA San Diego Board of Directors.

Stacy started working in commercial property management in the 90s, early in her career. Property management suited Stacy’s detail-oriented personality, and she began quickly climbing up the ladder. She started as an assistant, then moved into construction coordination, before she eventually found herself managing a 58-floor high rise in New York City!

Kudos to Michele Ignacio of A.O. Reed! Michele has been an integral part of the Communications Committee for years now. She always steps in when needed – reliably contributing both her creative energy and time!

Michele spearheads our chapter’s “Member Monday” features on social media, writes monthly Leadership Spotlights, and formats our Legislative Update into an easy-to-read PDF (among other projects!). Things wouldn’t be the same without you, Michele. From all of us on the committee... THANK YOU!

BOMA PADRES GAME RECAP

The Emerging Professionals Committee partnered with the Emergency Preparedness & Sustainability Committee to execute a successful event at Petco Park. It was both educational and fun as the evening started with an exclusive tour of the park's process for handling their waste. Here is one key takeaway from the audience regarding the facility tour:

"The Emergency Preparedness & Sustainability committee organized a behind-the-scenes tour of how the day-to-day operations are run at Petco Park. Armando Montes, the Director of Facility Services at Petco Park gave us a special VIP tour to discuss how Petco Park handles their waste and keeps their facilities green. We learned the results of Petco Park's latest waste audit results, and how he works with multiple teams daily to ensure guests and visitors have an amazing experience." – Nicole Murphy Schuck

Following the tour, members of BOMA San Diego gathered at Petco Park's Pacifico Porch to casually network while cheering on the Padres and enjoying delicious ballpark food. Ben Arvizu of CAM Property Services had the honor of ringing the Mission Bell at the start of the game! There was even a unique opportunity to win a prize for those who tested their baseball knowledge with BOMA Bingo.
