George Washington University's bicentennial is an incredible, historic milestone. February 9, 2021 is officially the 200th anniversary of when the United States Congress established our university's charter in 1821.

The George Washington University's bicentennial is an incredible, historic milestone. February 9, 2021 is officially the 200th anniversary of when the United States Congress established our university's charter in 1821.

Bicentennial Celebration

Ongoing

The George Washington University will mark this milestone with a year-long celebration that includes events, digital programs, and a host of new initiatives. The bicentennial will launch February 9, 2021.

Bicentennial lecture series

The bicentennial will be marked with a special lecture series. The series will feature distinguished, global leaders and influencers, as well as our students, faculty, and staff.

Bicentennial lectures with Abby Phillip, CNN’s senior political correspondent and anchor of Inside Politics Sunday, Abby Phillip.

April 6th | 6pm ET

March 26th | 6pm ET

March 24th | 5pm ET & March 25th | 12pm ET

Revisions Meeting with the Office of Students Rights & Responsibilities

March 22nd | 3pm ET

April 11th | 11:59pm ET

Public Service Grant Commission Application Deadline

The George Washington University's bicentennial is an incredible, historic milestone. February 9, 2021 is officially the 200th anniversary of when the United States Congress established our university's charter in 1821.

Journey Toward Justice

April 23rd - May 23rd

March 23 - April 23

12 Part Virtual Series

This series celebrates the bicentennial by bringing together changemakers from across the world. Join us in conversation with professionals who are driving social, environmental, and economic change.

Join a multi-college collaboration spotlighting changemakers across the country who are driving justice and equity forward! This virtual series will take place March 23 - April 23 and features 12 speakers.

Journeys Toward Justice

April 23rd - May 23rd

March 23 - April 23

12 Part Virtual Series

This series celebrates the bicentennial by bringing together changemakers from across the world. Join us in conversation with professionals who are driving social, environmental, and economic change.

Join a multi-college collaboration spotlighting changemakers across the country who are driving justice and equity forward! This virtual series will take place March 23 - April 23 and features 12 speakers.

UPCOMING EVENTS

NASHMAN OPPORTUNITIES

Shapiro Public Service Award

The Shapiro Public Service Award encourages and cultivates student social innovation and entrepreneurship. Each student must submit a proposal, and organizations to carry out student philanthropy and service projects.

Public Service Grant Commission

The George Washington University's bicentennial is an incredible, historic milestone. February 9, 2021 is officially the 200th anniversary of when the United States Congress established our university's charter in 1821.

The recipients must undertake this work without compensation for at least 300 hours in total.

Eligible public service may include work for any private non-profit organization or any institution or agency of federal, state, or local government. The public service must be performed in the United States or abroad.

The recipients will be selected through a competitive process.

Online

Apply here.

Due April 5, 2021

Announcement

Bicentennial Celebration

Ongoing

The George Washington University will mark this milestone with a year-long celebration that includes events, digital programs, and a host of new initiatives. The bicentennial will launch February 9, 2021.

Bicentennial lecture series

The bicentennial will be marked with a special lecture series. The series will feature distinguished, global leaders and influencers, as well as our students, faculty, and staff.

Bicentennial lectures with Abby Phillip, CNN’s senior political correspondent and anchor of Inside Politics Sunday, Abby Phillip.

April 6th | 6pm ET

March 26th | 6pm ET

March 24th | 5pm ET & March 25th | 12pm ET

Revisions Meeting with the Office of Students Rights & Responsibilities

March 22nd | 3pm ET

April 11th | 11:59pm ET

Public Service Grant Commission Application Deadline

The George Washington University's bicentennial is an incredible, historic milestone. February 9, 2021 is officially the 200th anniversary of when the United States Congress established our university's charter in 1821.

Journey Toward Justice

April 23rd - May 23rd

March 23 - April 23

12 Part Virtual Series

This series celebrates the bicentennial by bringing together changemakers from across the world. Join us in conversation with professionals who are driving social, environmental, and economic change.

Join a multi-college collaboration spotlighting changemakers across the country who are driving justice and equity forward! This virtual series will take place March 23 - April 23 and features 12 speakers.

Journeys Toward Justice

April 23rd - May 23rd

March 23 - April 23

12 Part Virtual Series

This series celebrates the bicentennial by bringing together changemakers from across the world. Join us in conversation with professionals who are driving social, environmental, and economic change.

Join a multi-college collaboration spotlighting changemakers across the country who are driving justice and equity forward! This virtual series will take place March 23 - April 23 and features 12 speakers.

UPCOMING EVENTS

NASHMAN OPPORTUNITIES

Shapiro Public Service Award

The Shapiro Public Service Award encourages and cultivates student social innovation and entrepreneurship. Each student must submit a proposal, and organizations to carry out student philanthropy and service projects.

Public Service Grant Commission

The George Washington University's bicentennial is an incredible, historic milestone. February 9, 2021 is officially the 200th anniversary of when the United States Congress established our university's charter in 1821.

The recipients must undertake this work without compensation for at least 300 hours in total.

Eligible public service may include work for any private non-profit organization or any institution or agency of federal, state, or local government. The public service must be performed in the United States or abroad.

The recipients will be selected through a competitive process.

Online

Apply here.

Due April 5, 2021

Announcement

Bicentennial Celebration

Ongoing

The George Washington University will mark this milestone with a year-long celebration that includes events, digital programs, and a host of new initiatives. The bicentennial will launch February 9, 2021.

Bicentennial lecture series

The bicentennial will be marked with a special lecture series. The series will feature distinguished, global leaders and influencers, as well as our students, faculty, and staff.

Bicentennial lectures with Abby Phillip, CNN’s senior political correspondent and anchor of Inside Politics Sunday, Abby Phillip.

April 6th | 6pm ET

March 26th | 6pm ET

March 24th | 5pm ET & March 25th | 12pm ET

Revisions Meeting with the Office of Students Rights & Responsibilities

March 22nd | 3pm ET

April 11th | 11:59pm ET

Public Service Grant Commission Application Deadline

The George Washington University's bicentennial is an incredible, historic milestone. February 9, 2021 is officially the 200th anniversary of when the United States Congress established our university's charter in 1821.

Journey Toward Justice

April 23rd - May 23rd

March 23 - April 23

12 Part Virtual Series

This series celebrates the bicentennial by bringing together changemakers from across the world. Join us in conversation with professionals who are driving social, environmental, and economic change.

Join a multi-college collaboration spotlighting changemakers across the country who are driving justice and equity forward! This virtual series will take place March 23 - April 23 and features 12 speakers.

Journeys Toward Justice

April 23rd - May 23rd

March 23 - April 23

12 Part Virtual Series

This series celebrates the bicentennial by bringing together changemakers from across the world. Join us in conversation with professionals who are driving social, environmental, and economic change.

Join a multi-college collaboration spotlighting changemakers across the country who are driving justice and equity forward! This virtual series will take place March 23 - April 23 and features 12 speakers.