Focus groups, proposing an analysis plan, and developing the corresponding budget to complete this intervention using a series of focus groups. Lisa Goldman Rosas, PhD MPH, Faculty Director of the birth among women with lupus. Then, she proposed to bring these findings to women and their perspective of pregnant women with lupus and their providers. Her study design included cutting-national Melanoma Registry.

of melanoma patients in California including family members and friends. The registry will form part Melanoma Community Registry of California (MCRC). The goal of the registry is to develop a cohort designed to prevent and detect melanoma. The team is currently building a data repository called the September 2019. The Peer Navigators were excited to showcase their wonderful work and speak to presented at the American Association of Cancer Research Conference on The Science of Cancer organizations. The OCE worked with the Peer Navigators to develop a conference poster that was public radio PSA, to a full-day conference with speakers, to collaborations with faith-based resources, reaching over 700 women in Alameda County. These community events ranged from a phase of the program included educational sessions on topics such as breast cancer disparities, best methodologies, and tools for examining the effectiveness of various engagement strategies aimed.

methodologies like Social Network Analysis.

provided the research plan. The plan used a Community-Based Participatory Research approach submit a proposal to systematically examine their base-building efforts. Base-building refers to the community and address systemic inequities. In response to a recent Robert Wood Johnson

EDUCATION

Nutrition, Family & Consumer Sciences Advisor with UC Cooperative Extension

Associate Director of Community Partnerships

Geeta is captain of Basmati Raas, Stanford's nationally competitive Indian dance

SPHERE Symposium

JOIN OUR MAILING LIST

STANFORD MEDICINE | OFFICE OF COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT | 1701 PAGE MILL ROAD | PALO ALTO, CA 94304

Thank you for your support and commitment to the Office of Community Engagement. We look forward to continuing our partnerships with the community.

We are also delighted to announce the launch of our new website