LMU Summer Abroad... OFFICE OF NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL FELLOWSHIPS (ONIF)

- Off-Campus Programs: Off-Campus Programs for first- and second-year students. Participants explore the culture, language, and history of their host country.
- LMU Summer Program: LMU Summer Program for students of color who exemplify leadership, social justice, agitation for positive change, and cross-cultural knowledge.
- Sheepherder Summer Practice: A unique opportunity for students to gain work experience in rural environments.
- Study Overseas, Study! Program: Highest GPAs throughout the world are not just a myth. Apply to learn more about funding opportunities to study abroad.

ONIF is currently accepting applicants for the Spring 2022 Fulbright Summer/Fall Semesters and the 2023-2024 academic year's competition. On February 14, applicants can submit their applications for the 2024-2025 academic year. Funding is available in all disciplines, and applicants can apply for up to two grants of up to $40,000 each.

Fulbright is happy to announce its recent partnership with TrueRemove® to better protect Fulbright participants from online harassment. TrueRemove’s software and services help participants take control of their online image and minimize the risks of harassment, bullying, and misinformation. TrueRemove also offers services to help participants mitigate the risks of harassment and misinformation once it occurs.

Funding opportunity for summer and fall 2022 study abroad! Students interested in studying abroad for the first time can apply for the Gilman-McCain Scholarship.

The Student Global Leadership Conference (SGLC) is an opportunity to challenge yourself, delve into leadership, learn from experienced leaders, and connect with peers across different universities.

For more information on these opportunities, please visit the Office of National and International Fellowships website or contact them via email at onif@lmu.edu.
