Study Abroad

LMU Study Abroad Newsletter - January 2023 Edition

Full-time summer programs in art, business, education, and more! Apply before March 15th!

Program Spotlight - Summer 2023

Women: LMU Summer in Berlin - Explore, learn, and grow! Applications are now open for our Women's Program in Berlin. This program offers a unique opportunity for women to network, gain new perspectives, and develop leadership skills. Learn more here.

U.S. Passport processing is still very delayed. If you need to apply for a new passport or renew your passport, do not wait! Visit the US Passport website to get started.

Ways to Connect with the Study Abroad team

Visit our website to learn more about our programs and opportunities. You can also connect with us on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram.

OFFICE OF NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL FELLOWSHIPS (ONIF)

ONIF offers several prestigious fellowships to support students in their study abroad experiences. The Fulbright U.S. Student Program, for example, provides financial support for US citizens to pursue advanced degrees or teach at universities abroad. The Gilman-McCain Scholarship program offers scholarships to students who are members of the military or veterans to study abroad. Visit our website for more information on how to apply.

LMU Summer programming for graduating seniors - Virtual Summer Programs:

In addition to traditional study abroad programs, LMU offers virtual summer programs for students who are unable to travel. The LMU Summer Immersion Program in Budapest, for example, offers a virtual introduction to screenwriting, while the LMU Summer Immersion Program in Bonn offers career development in engineering. Students can also participate in online courses and workshops to continue their education and explore new interests.

LMU at The Washington Center in DC

The LMU at The Washington Center in DC offers a unique opportunity for students to gain real-world experience in our nation's capital. The LMU Summer Washington Center Academic Internship Program provides students with an opportunity to work at a professional level while earning academic credit. Students can choose from a variety of internships that match their personal and professional goals. Learn more about the LMU at The Washington Center in DC here.

Office of National and International Fellowships

ONIF offers several prestigious fellowships to support students in their study abroad experiences. The Fulbright U.S. Student Program, for example, provides financial support for US citizens to pursue advanced degrees or teach at universities abroad. The Gilman-McCain Scholarship program offers scholarships to students who are members of the military or veterans to study abroad. Visit our website for more information on how to apply.

Student Global Leadership Conference

The Student Global Leadership Conference (SGLC) is an annual event that brings together students from across the globe to discuss issues related to global leadership, social justice, and cross-cultural understanding. The SGLC is a great opportunity for students to network and learn from others who want to make a difference. Dates: April 25-27.

Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Summer Enrichment Program

The Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Summer Enrichment Program is a six-week paid summer program designed to provide undergraduate students with leadership experience and global perspective. The program is open to students who are U.S. citizens, possess a U.S. passport, and have a minimum GPA of 3.2. The program includes an intensive leadership program, cultural immersion, and travel to international locations. Learn more about the Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Summer Enrichment Program here.

ONIF is currently recruiting applicants for the Fulbright U.S. Student Program. Applications for the 2024-2025 academic year are now open. Visit our website to learn more and apply.

OFFICE OF NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL FELLOWSHIPS (ONIF)

ONIF offers several prestigious fellowships to support students in their study abroad experiences. The Fulbright U.S. Student Program, for example, provides financial support for US citizens to pursue advanced degrees or teach at universities abroad. The Gilman-McCain Scholarship program offers scholarships to students who are members of the military or veterans to study abroad. Visit our website for more information on how to apply.

Stay tuned for more information on study abroad opportunities and events at LMU. To receive future newsletters, please confirm your subscription by clicking the link in the email or visiting our website. We look forward to sharing more about our programs and opportunities with you!

LMU Study Abroad Newsletter

For more information or to receive our future newsletters, please confirm your subscription by clicking the link in the email or visiting our website.