Study Abroad

Full-time semester programs in a wide range of locations. Apply now before March 1, 2023.

PROGRAM PREVIEW

Virtual Summer Programs:

- Observership program, second track, focuses on Spanish language and Mexican culture. This program is designed for students who want to gain a deeper understanding of Mexican society and culture through language and cultural immersion. Participants will have the opportunity to engage in cultural activities, attend lectures, and participate in language classes.

- Internship program, second track, provides hands-on experience that closely matches your personal and professional goals. Students will work with a host company or organization to gain real-world experience in their field of interest, while enhancing their resume.

- Teaching program, second track, combines academic study with teaching experience. Participants will develop their teaching skills while contributing to education in a foreign country.

- Research program, second track, focuses on research and scholarship. Students will have the opportunity to conduct research under the guidance of a local faculty member, which can contribute to their academic and professional development.

- Service program, second track, emphasizes community service and social justice. Participants will engage in service projects that address local needs, fostering cultural understanding and community development.

- Arts program, second track, offers opportunities for artistic expression and cultural exploration. Students will have the chance to participate in workshops, performances, and exhibitions, enhancing their creative and cultural development.

- Sports program, second track, provides opportunities for athletic development and personal growth. Participants will have the chance to participate in sports competitions, enhancing their physical fitness and team-building skills.

- Drama program, second track, focuses on acting and performance. Students will have the opportunity to participate in acting workshops, rehearsals, and productions, enhancing their artistic and public speaking skills.

Ways to Connect with the Study Abroad team

- Virtual event, second track, offers a platform for students to connect with program advisors and learn more about specific programs. Students can ask questions, discuss their interests, and receive personalized guidance.

- Email, second track, provides a way for students to contact the Study Abroad team directly. Students can send questions or inquiries to the team, who will respond promptly.

- Social media, second track, offers a way for students to follow the Study Abroad team on various platforms. Students can stay up-to-date with the latest news and updates on Study Abroad programs.

- Website, second track, offers a comprehensive resource for students to learn more about Study Abroad programs. Students can explore program options, eligibility requirements, and application procedures.

- Phone call, second track, provides a way for students to speak directly with a program advisor. Students can schedule a call to discuss their interests and receive personalized guidance.

- In-person meeting, second track, offers a way for students to meet with a program advisor in person. Students can schedule an appointment to discuss their interests and receive personalized guidance.

- February 15. A six-week paid summer program designed to provide undergraduate students with hands-on experience in the field of international affairs. Participants will have the opportunity to engage in a variety of tasks, including research, analysis, and writing. The program will take place in Washington, D.C., and will provide students with a unique opportunity to work with professionals in the field of international relations.

- Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Summer Enrichment Program, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Frederick Douglass Global Fellowship, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Fulbright UK Summer Institutes, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Summer Enrichment Program, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Frederick Douglass Global Fellowship, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Fulbright UK Summer Institutes, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Summer Enrichment Program, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Frederick Douglass Global Fellowship, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Fulbright UK Summer Institutes, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Summer Enrichment Program, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Frederick Douglass Global Fellowship, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Fulbright UK Summer Institutes, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Summer Enrichment Program, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Frederick Douglass Global Fellowship, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Fulbright UK Summer Institutes, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Summer Enrichment Program, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Frederick Douglass Global Fellowship, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Fulbright UK Summer Institutes, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Summer Enrichment Program, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Frederick Douglass Global Fellowship, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Fulbright UK Summer Institutes, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Summer Enrichment Program, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Frederick Douglass Global Fellowship, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Fulbright UK Summer Institutes, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Summer Enrichment Program, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Frederick Douglass Global Fellowship, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Fulbright UK Summer Institutes, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Summer Enrichment Program, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Frederick Douglass Global Fellowship, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Fulbright UK Summer Institutes, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Summer Enrichment Program, second track, provides funding opportunities for U.S. citizens who are majoring in international affairs or related fields. Participants will have the opportunity to gain real-world experience in the field of international affairs, while developing their leadership and communication skills.

- Frederick Douglass Global Fellowship, second track, provides funding opportu