APPLICATION DEADLINE EXTENDED TO MARCH 31ST

Gain valuable career and cultural experience this summer with LMU's Global Internship Program, offered again in a virtual format. Students of all disciplines and majors can intern remotely with an international company or organization based in one of 14 countries around the world. Receive dedicated support from LMU, including round-trip transportation to the host country; funding to cover room, board, and incidental costs; accident & sickness health benefits; and more!

Fulbright English Teaching Assistants (ETA) work in elementary schools, secondary schools, or in universities in over 75 countries. They assist local teachers and serve as cultural ambassadors. ETAs receive round-trip international travel and a monthly stipend. You'll discover how teaching English abroad during the 2022-2023 academic year can support a wide range of career goals. We will also discuss how to craft a competitive Fulbright English Teaching Assistant (ETA) Application at 6:00 p.m. PT April 8. Learn more.
