War and Peace: Philosophical and Theological Perspectives

PHIL 3998 – 4 credits; Core: Faith and Reason; Engaged Learning Flag

Through this virtual immersion in the Balkans, students will learn about the power of narrative for personal and cultural formation and for provoking violence or fostering peace. Participants will engage with local peacemakers, war-survivors, artists, and cultural critics. Take one or both courses.

International Business Venturing & Socio-economic Development

ENTR 4898/INBA 4398 - 4 credits

This virtual global program explores international entrepreneurship through interactive case studies, video, spreadsheets, and engagement-based reading and discussion. Students will learn how to develop innovative ventures to compete based on global ideas. Case studies include several real-life examples that will be delivered to the class by guest speakers.
