Calling all aspiring leaders! LMU Professor of Political Science, Dr. Michael Genovese, will be delivering the opening remarks at this year’s conference.

FIE Student Global Leadership Conference – April 11-12, 2021

This virtual conference is based in London and allows you to connect with keynote speakers, attend virtual sessions, and develop your global leadership tools with students and delegates from around the world who want to make a difference. Hear from keynote speakers, attend virtual sessions, and develop your global leadership tools with students and delegates from around the world who want to make a difference.

Register now for a unique international experience available only through LMU. Not ready to sign up? Opt out to receive our future emails.

From the Office of National & International Fellowship (ONIF)

Fulbright English Teaching Assistants (ETA) work in elementary schools, secondary schools, or in universities in over 75 countries. They assist local teachers and serve as cultural ambassadors. ETAs receive round-trip transportation to the host country; funding to cover room, board, and incidental costs; accident & sickness health benefits; and more!

Fulbright English Teaching Assistants (ETA) Application at 6:00 p.m. PT

April 7: Crafting a Competitive Fulbright English Teaching Assistant (ETA) Application

The on-demand webinar will guide you step-by-step in building the competitive application package and LMU’s campus process.

Learn how teaching English abroad during the 2022-2023 academic year can support a wide range of career goals. We will also discuss how to craft a competitive application package and LMU’s campus process. Our summer program courses will take you abroad without leaving home.

LMU Virtual Study Abroad – Summer Session II: June 28 - August 6

The following courses are offered this summer! This virtual global program explores international entrepreneurship through interactive case studies, virtual speakers, and engaging panel discussions. Students will also benefit from experiential learning in company visits, executive speakers, and engaging team-building activities. Students who have not yet been fully vaccinated must be fully vaccinated within 10 days of starting classes.

International Business Venturing & Socio-economic Development (ENTR 4898/INBA 4398 - 4 credits)

This course offers an interdisciplinary study of international business related to the socio-economic development of emerging markets. The course involves case studies of businesses in South America. Join us this summer!

War and Peace: Philosophical and Theological Perspectives (PHIL 3998 – 4 credits; Core: Faith and Reason; Engaged Learning Flag)

Through this virtual immersion in the Balkans, students will learn about the power of narrative for personal and cultural formation and for provoking violence or fostering peace. Participants will engage with local peacemakers, war-survivors, artists, and cultural critics. Take one or both courses.

Narrative and Identity (PHIL 3998 – 4 credits; Core: Interdisciplinary Connections; Writing; Oral Skills Flag)

FIE’s International Business Immersion Program – June 28 - August 6

This course offers an interdisciplinary study of international business related to the socio-economic development of emerging markets. The course involves case studies of businesses in South America. Join us this summer! This virtual global program explores international entrepreneurship through interactive case studies, virtual speakers, and engaging panel discussions. Students will also benefit from experiential learning in company visits, executive speakers, and engaging team-building activities. Students who have not yet been fully vaccinated must be fully vaccinated within 10 days of starting classes.