SUMMER 2021

LMU Virtual Study Abroad – Summer Session II: June 28 - August 6

Our summer program courses will take you abroad without leaving home. I'm interested!

International Business Venturing & Socio-economic Development

(ENTR 4898/INBA 4398 - 4 credits)

This virtual global program explores international entrepreneurship through interactive company visits, executive speakers, and engaging team-building activities. Students complete two business consulting projects for companies based in Africa, Asia, Europe, or South America. Join us this summer!

Narrative and Identity

(PHIL 3998 – 4 credits; Core: Interdisciplinary Connections; Writing; Oral Skills Flag)

War and Peace: Philosophical and Theological Perspectives

(PHIL 3998 – 4 credits; Core: Faith and Reason; Engaged Learning Flag)

Through this virtual immersion in the Balkans, students will learn about the power of narrative for personal and cultural formation and for provoking violence or fostering peace. Participants will engage with local peacemakers, war-survivors, artists, and cultural critics. Take one or both courses. Optional remote internship based in Croatia also available.

Register now for a unique international experience available only through LMU. Not ready to sign up? Join the interest list.

"LEADERSHIP FOR CHANGE IN AN UNCERTAIN WORLD"

FIE Student Global Leadership Conference – April 11-12, 2021

Calling all aspiring leaders! LMU Professor of Political Science, Dr. Michael Genovese, will be delivering the opening remarks at this year's conference.

Registration is free. This virtual conference is based in London and allows you to connect with students and delegates from around the world who want to make a difference. Hear from keynote speakers, attend virtual sessions, and develop your global leadership tools for real-world implementation. Students may attend as many or as few events as their schedules permit.

Event Dates: APRIL 10 - 11, 2021

April 8: Crafting a Competitive Fulbright English Teaching Assistant (ETA) Application at 6:00 p.m. PT

Fulbright English Teaching Assistants (ETA) work in elementary schools, secondary schools, or in universities in over 75 countries. They assist local teachers and serve as cultural ambassadors. ETAs receive round-trip transportation to the host country; funding to cover room, board, and incidental costs; accident & sickness health benefits; and more!

Learn how teaching English abroad during the 2022-2023 academic year can support a wide range of career goals. We will also discuss how to craft a competitive application package and LMU's campus process.

LMU students, and alumni are encouraged to attend. Applicants do not have to be pursuing careers in education. Fulbright seeks qualified individuals from all disciplines and majors*. *Applicants must be U.S. citizens.
