Today is National Voter Registration Day!

GW Votes is participating in this important day by opening its doors to the public as a voter registration site. We encourage GW students, staff, faculty and Washington DC residents to visit the Center today, Monday September 21st, 2020, from 10am-2pm EST to register and learning about voting. Please bring your current photo ID. This event will be performed remotely.

GW Votes is excited to participate in National Voter Registration Day as a member of our DC community. We are pleased to see you register to vote and to learn more about election procedures.
