

WORLD CITIZEN IS HERE TO EMPOWER COMMUNITIES TO EDUCATE FOR A JUST AND PEACEFUL WORLD

The Five Peace Actions

SEEK peace within yourself and others

REACH OUT in service

PROTECT the environment

RESPECT diversity

BE a responsible citizen of the world

Greetings World Citizen Friends! Do you know a school, home, place of worship, or business that is a World Citizen Peace Site? As an individual are you a World Citizen Peace Ambassador? What does all of this mean? It means being committed to the World Citizen Five Peace Actions.

- SEEK peace within yourself and others
- REACH OUT in service
- PROTECT the environment
- RESPECT diversity
- BE a responsible citizen of the world

Following is an example of what a committed individual to the Five Peace Actions can accomplish. Renee beautifully displays the World Citizen flag and a World Citizen Peace Action Pole, surrounded by a beautiful garden. By outwardly displaying her commitment to the Five Peace Actions, she invokes meaningful conversation with individuals in her community. Following are some examples of her commitment.

- "I am able to have conversations with folks when walking their dogs. There is not much they can disagree with on the peace pole."
- "It enables me to have conversations about diversity of cultures, plants, beliefs, and environment."
- "The high school students that have come by have commented and said, "Great Flag" and really like the pole. It gives me hope for the future."
- "Instead of watching the news that is dividing all of us, I go to my garden and am thankful for our earth and where we live."
- "I talk about how our long block can survive and help each other when things go bad such as the Covid-19. Jokingly, but serious at the same time. One neighbor can keep us safe with his amazing strength, I can provide food from our chickens and garden, another neighbor can clothe us with her quilting, and another is an amazing cook. It is interesting to see everyone's reaction. We all have dogs so that will for sure bring us together. It makes me smile to see them thinking."

This is just one example of how powerful the World Citizen Peace Actions can be once you embrace them as your way of life. World Citizen friends, join us to contribute to a Just and Peaceful World.

Peace Will Prevail,

Kathy Millington
