Island. Paul had a heart for Horry County. Waccamaw Wildlife Refuge, Horry County Museum, and the Larry Paul Trail on Sandy Island. In community endeavors, he purchased a building in downtown Conway to assist with the Georgetown Home Builders Association, an organization that has now over 500 members.

Grand Strand during the 1970s and 1980s. Starting with a vision for single-family housing, Morrison Yard raises the bar for office space in Charleston. The year was 1909, and he traveled on an ox-driven cart! The late Mrs. Nance's significant contribution to Myrtle Beach's early civic, business, and religious growth. A monument named for Daniel Wayne Nance and Mary Ellen Todd Nance in recognition of their decades of service to the Myrtle Beach community.

Magnolia Row is a mixed-use commercial development consisting of restaurants, retail and office space. The centerpiece is an animated, lighted water fountain. Currently, it is the focus of the "arts and culture" movement in the area. There are just a few examples.

Morrison Yard raises the bar for office space in Charleston. With 16 floors of ground-floor retail, 17,000 square feet of conference rooms, and dozens of other amenities, Morrison Yard is a true riverfront destination.

Recognizes the development and successful implementation of an ongoing, sustained project or initiative that promotes and/or is integral to comprehensive community and/or economic development. Business parks, office complexes, and single-purpose facilities are just a few examples.

Prior to his academic career, Salvino worked in Columbus, Ohio, as a geologist for a civil engineering firm. He also served as the Director of Business Development for a technology company before joining the faculty of Coastal Carolina University.

Ellison has been awarded the CRE® (Counselor of Real Estate) credential by The American Society of Appraisers for his work in appraisal, negotiation, and mediation. He is also a fellow in both the American College of Real Estate Lawyers and the American College of Mortgage Attorneys. He is the South Carolina member of the American Property Tax Counsel and the South Carolina Bar Association.

Kirk Lovell is managing director of air service consulting at Mead & Hunt. He began his aviation career more than 20 years ago. He enjoys working with large, medium, and small airports to enhance passenger experience and air service development.

Rep. Tim McGinnis is a businessman and leader in the Grand Strand community. He is married to Anna and is the proud father of Sam, Piper, Zoe, and Gage. McGinnis is married to Anna and is the proud father of Sam, Piper, Zoe, and Gage.

Ellison represents local, national, and international investors, lenders, and real estate developers in the development, financing, and disposition of commercial properties and other assets. Recently, he has worked with startup and mature knowledge-based companies. Ellison is also a panelist for the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, a select group of mediators and arbitrators.