November 2021

Faculty Spotlight: Kate M. Chaffin

Kate M. Chaffin, MSSW, LAPSW, is Director of the Career Advocates Program and a faculty member in the Department of Practice with the College of Social Work. Kate completed her MSSW degree here at UTK in 2004, and then worked as a forensic social worker in the court system until 2008. UT in 2004, and then worked as a forensic social worker in the court system until 2008. In that year the College of Social Work hired Kate as the first MSSW Program Director. Kate completed her PhD in Social Work Policy and Administration at the University of Minnesota in 2010. She is currently an Associate Professor of the Online MSSW Program and Professor of Practice with the College of Social Work. Kate also her as a social work educator and practitioner. She has been a key leader in the development and advancement of the online MSSW program at UTK, and she is passionate about using her education and experiences to support practicing social workers and social work educators. Kate has been involved in the development of CIRTL virtual workshops, such as “Career Advocates Program” for Faculty & Staff. The Center for Career Development & Academic Exploration's Career Advocates Program is designed to equip faculty and staff with tools and resources to have meaningful and effective career conversations with students. As a result of this opportunity participants will:

- Gain a basic knowledge of career development theory, career management, and related resources and tools.
- Understand how to support student career development, decision making, internship and job searching, and make effective referrals to the Center for Career Development & Academic Exploration and other resources.
- Learn the professional and ethical guidelines outlined by NACE.

The training will be held Monday, November 22nd from 9am - noon via Zoom. Visit the Career Advocates webpage for more information.

Contact TLI

tei@utk.edu

Faculty Spotlight: Kate M. Chaffin

Kate M. Chaffin, MSSW, LAPSW, is Director of the Career Advocates Program and a faculty member in the Department of Practice with the College of Social Work. Kate completed her MSSW degree here at UTK in 2004, and then worked as a forensic social worker in the court system until 2008. UT in 2004, and then worked as a forensic social worker in the court system until 2008. In that year the College of Social Work hired Kate as the first MSSW Program Director. Kate completed her PhD in Social Work Policy and Administration at the University of Minnesota in 2010. She is currently an Associate Professor of the Online MSSW Program and Professor of Practice with the College of Social Work. Kate also her as a social work educator and practitioner. She has been a key leader in the development and advancement of the online MSSW program at UTK, and she is passionate about using her education and experiences to support practicing social workers and social work educators. Kate has been involved in the development of CIRTL virtual workshops, such as “Career Advocates Program” for Faculty & Staff. The Center for Career Development & Academic Exploration's Career Advocates Program is designed to equip faculty and staff with tools and resources to have meaningful and effective career conversations with students. As a result of this opportunity participants will:

- Gain a basic knowledge of career development theory, career management, and related resources and tools.
- Understand how to support student career development, decision making, internship and job searching, and make effective referrals to the Center for Career Development & Academic Exploration and other resources.
- Learn the professional and ethical guidelines outlined by NACE.

The training will be held Monday, November 22nd from 9am - noon via Zoom. Visit the Career Advocates webpage for more information.

Contact TLI

tli@utk.edu

This email was sent to .

Learn About Career Advocates

View as web page

Unsubscribe to our email list.