May 2024

Dear Colleague,

Greetings from a sunny cold day in Buenos Aires! It looks like winter has arrived a month early for us, so what better time to plan a trip to the increasingly warm weather in the US?

Next month, I'm attending the Travel Leaders Edge Conference in National Harbor in Maryland and Adventure Elevate in Asheville, North Carolina, both on behalf of Las Torres Patagonia. If you're at either of these shows, please drop me a line so we can schedule a meeting or drinks.

Speaking about trips, last month I attended the Emotions BA trade show on behalf of La Coralina Island House. If you weren't there but are interested in learning more about this gorgeous hotel on the Caribbean Sea (outside the hurricane belt), feel free to schedule a one-on-one virtual meeting with me here or sign up for our webinar on June 25th here. La Coralina has lots of special packages (like the 5x4), yoga retreats, and more for you and your clients.

Another member of the Emerging Destinations portfolio offering great packages — not only for your clients but also unbeatable fam opportunities this summer for travel advisors — is Enchanted Expeditions in Ecuador. Have you been dreaming of sailing the Galapagos Islands? Now is the moment to make that dream come true! Review their special for the travel trade here.

Last month, my colleagues Jenna and Paula embarked on a memorable trip to Bolivia with Hidalgo Tours DMC including a stay at the Palacio de Sal Hotel, built with more than a million blocks of salt and located on the edge of the Uyuni Salt Flats. Please stay tuned for their upcoming webinar on the experience.

While they were exploring Bolivia, Jane and I were discovering Argentine Patagonia with our new client River House Lodge Patagonia. It was a magical four-days at one of the most cozy but still luxurious places I have ever stayed. On top of that, our first-time fly-fishing experience was a great success. Jane snagged more than seven trout and I caught (and released) the biggest fish of the day. If you don't believe our fish story, see below the "proof." If you missed our webinar on River House Lodge Patagonia last week, you can watch it here.

We invite you to take a read of this month's newsletter. As usual, our clients have amazing news, promos and offers to share with you as well as some secrets to be revealed.

Enjoy the reading!

Ana (on behalf of the ED team: Jane, Jenna, Paula & Ana)

Chocolate Tasting in the Galapagos

Growing cacao plants at Enchanted Galapagos Lodge started as a fun hobby for owner Judy and her husband Rodolfo. To their surprise, the plants did very well, and they are excited to share with guests.

The tasting experience starts with a casual walk through the lodge orchard to learn about Arriba

Nacional cacao plants — considered the best in the world — and continues with a chance to make fresh artisanal chocolate and then enjoy eating some.
