March update
Keeping you in touch

A NOTE FROM THE PRESIDENT

As we move further into the spring semester, I hope that you are finding a balance between academic pursuits and personal well-being. It is a time when we see the promise of a sunnier future, yet one where challenges remain.

The COVID-19 pandemic has brought unexpected challenges, and we must continue to navigate these times with care and resilience. The LSU community has demonstrated an incredible spirit of unity and support.

As we look toward the end of this academic year, I am proud of what our community has accomplished together. From research breakthroughs to academic achievements, the LSU community has demonstrated its commitment to excellence.

I am also grateful for the support of our donors, whose contributions help to fund the programs and initiatives that make LSU such a special place.

I encourage you to continue to support one another, and to stay tuned for updates on our future plans.

Sincerely,

[Louisiana State University]
