A NOTE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear LSU
Families,

The fall semester is nearing its end as our students begin wrapping up their coursework and preparing for final exams. We have numerous useful academic resources available on campus for your Tiger, whether they are just starting or concluding their journey here at LSU.

As we've seen is the case with Coach O and our football team, a great game plan is essential to bringing about the best results. Encourage your Tiger to budget their time wisely, collect their study materials early, and ask questions of their faculty.
