November update
Welcome to the LSU Family!

A Little From the President:

Dear LSU Families,

I hope this update finds you well. As we approach the end of the semester, I wanted to provide some important reminders and updates.

Have you thought about taking any summer classes? The end of the fall semester is a great time to plan for summer courses and courses for the upcoming academic year.

Are you thinking about studying abroad? November is National Career Development Month! The Office of Multicultural Affairs is hosting a number of events this November to celebrate Native American Heritage Month, including a Native American dance demo, make your own dreamcatcher tutorial, and more.

Are you wondering about leadership opportunities? Leadership LSU is now accepting applications from all Juniors, Seniors, and Graduate Students. Leadership LSU focuses on students examining social change and building connections across campus and the Baton Rouge community.

Looking to treat your Tiger to a special gift? LSU Bursar Operations is offering Deferred Payment Plans for Fall 2019. Students participating in the Deferred Payment Plan for Fall 2019 may include medical care, meal plans, textbooks, and additional expenses. The Office of Multicultural Affairs is raising awareness on eating disorders with November’s TigerCASH Lagniappe Partner, The Jambalaya.

Are you curious about staying healthy and fit? LSU UREC sells personal training packages that include fitness assessments. UREC personal trainers motivate and hold you accountable to your goals.

Are you preparing for finals? The Louisiana State University Parent Fund is offering a variety of resources to help your Tiger succeed. LSU President F. King Alexander encourages parents to budget their time wisely, collect study materials early, and ask questions of their faculty.

LSU President F. King Alexander here at LSU is truly the experience of a lifetime. Your Tiger has the opportunity to learn, lead, and discover. LSU provides students in their final semesters the opportunity to sharpen their leadership skills, meet and network with leaders in the Baton Rouge community, and apply their knowledge to real-world problems.

Are you wondering about travel plans? LSU UREC sells international travel insurance. Planning to travel abroad over the holidays? Don’t forget to grab your passport photos! The Office of Multicultural Affairs is highlighting the LSU President’s Global’s “Taste of the World” event at The 5 Global.

Are you planning to visit campus? LSU Bursar Operations is holding a Winter Break Holiday Shuttle for students who are unable to return home. The Winter Break Holiday Shuttle leaves from the New Orleans Airport on December 8 and will return on January 2.

Are you considering taking a class? LSU offers over 900 different classes this semester. Visit myLSU to register for your classes and make the most of your LSU experience.

Are you considering a major change? The Office of Multicultural Affairs is highlighting the LSU President’s Global’s “Taste of the World” event at The 5 Global.

Are you looking for a job? The Office of Multicultural Affairs is highlighting the LSU President’s Global’s “Taste of the World” event at The 5 Global.

Are you thinking about studying abroad? November is National Career Development Month! The Office of Multicultural Affairs is hosting a number of events this November to celebrate Native American Heritage Month, including a Native American dance demo, make your own dreamcatcher tutorial, and more.

Have you thought about taking any summer classes? The end of the fall semester is a great time to plan for summer courses and courses for the upcoming academic year.

Are you thinking about studying abroad? November is National Career Development Month! The Office of Multicultural Affairs is hosting a number of events this November to celebrate Native American Heritage Month, including a Native American dance demo, make your own dreamcatcher tutorial, and more.

Have you thought about taking any summer classes? The end of the fall semester is a great time to plan for summer courses and courses for the upcoming academic year.

Are you thinking about studying abroad? November is National Career Development Month! The Office of Multicultural Affairs is hosting a number of events this November to celebrate Native American Heritage Month, including a Native American dance demo, make your own dreamcatcher tutorial, and more.

Have you thought about taking any summer classes? The end of the fall semester is a great time to plan for summer courses and courses for the upcoming academic year.

Are you thinking about studying abroad? November is National Career Development Month! The Office of Multicultural Affairs is hosting a number of events this November to celebrate Native American Heritage Month, including a Native American dance demo, make your own dreamcatcher tutorial, and more.

Have you thought about taking any summer classes? The end of the fall semester is a great time to plan for summer courses and courses for the upcoming academic year.

Are you thinking about studying abroad? November is National Career Development Month! The Office of Multicultural Affairs is hosting a number of events this November to celebrate Native American Heritage Month, including a Native American dance demo, make your own dreamcatcher tutorial, and more.

Have you thought about taking any summer classes? The end of the fall semester is a great time to plan for summer courses and courses for the upcoming academic year.

Are you thinking about studying abroad? November is National Career Development Month! The Office of Multicultural Affairs is hosting a number of events this November to celebrate Native American Heritage Month, including a Native American dance demo, make your own dreamcatcher tutorial, and more.

Have you thought about taking any summer classes? The end of the fall semester is a great time to plan for summer courses and courses for the upcoming academic year.