All parents are invited to join the LSU Family Association for our annual Banana Split Party

After a long morning of getting your student settled and before you "split," here's a chance to cool off, mingle with other parents, and enjoy some time with your student. Besides, ice cream always makes saying "bye-for-now" a little easier. Please come early to enjoy the ice cream from the LSU Dairy Store while it lasts.

A Note from the President

Dear LSU Parents and Family,

It's that time again! Summer commencement takes place on Friday, and the start of the Fall semester is right around the corner. Once our graduates walk across that stage and make the transition from student to alumnus, they go on to do some really incredible things. And your student will be among their numbers before you know it.

I make a habit of telling you what a great investment an LSU education is, but I'm aware that seeing is believing. That's why we've partnered with our young alumni to share their success stories through social media. Follow the #MyLSUDegree hashtag to hear directly from our graduates themselves.

If you're not on Facebook, Twitter, or Instagram, you can still see what our graduates do with their education at www.lsu.edu/mylsudegree. I encourage to take a peek and see how our young alumni have put their degrees to work for them. From working at Google to positions with the LA Rams and beyond, it's always good to be a Tiger.

As always, thank you for trusting us with your Tiger.

Sincerely,

F. King Alexander

LSU President

Tiger Transition Team (T3)

No one knows how to do LSU better than a current LSU student. The Tiger Transition Team (T3) program matches first-year students with a peer mentor to help them adjust to life at LSU. Click here to request a peer mentor for your Tiger.

Bengal Bound

It's almost time to kick-start your Tiger's first year at LSU. Encourage your student to participate in Bengal Bound, the official welcome week of LSU. Bengal Bound includes more than 70 events to help you get used to campus, meet other first year students and learn about University resources. Be on the look out for the official 2016 event line-up, coming soon!

All Moved In? Now What?

Late Night LSU

Celebrate life as a Tiger at Late Night LSU: It's Going Down on the Bayou, a giant welcome back party in the LSU Student Union on Thursday, August 18 from 10 p.m. until 2 a.m. We'll have games and activities, a dance club, bits of Louisiana culture, free food and food coupons, and the chance to make lots of new friends while having a ton of fun.

Community Bound

It's not too late to register for Community Bound, a morning of service in East Baton Rouge Parish Schools on Friday, August 19. We'll go back to elementary school before starting college! Projects may include reading buddies, PE buddies, painting around the school, and light landscape work. LSU will provide transportation and lunch. Register at www.lsu.edu/communitybound.

Outdoor Movie

Bring a blanket and a friend to watch Captain America: Civil War on a giant projection screen on the Parade Ground Thursday, August 25, at 8 p.m. We will have movie snacks, too! This is the first in a series of Thursday Night Live events held most Thursdays at 8 p.m. during the semester.

Apply for Homecoming Court

Does your student love purple and live gold? Would s/he be a shining example of an LSU Tiger? Nominate him/her for the 2016 Homecoming Court—all students, including first-year students—are eligible: <http://sites01.lsu.edu/wp/campuslife/3011-2/>. Your student can learn more about Homecoming and apply to be on the Court at www.lsu.edu/homecoming. Deadline for applications is 11:59 p.m. Tuesday, August 30.

Welcome to UC's Center for Freshman Year

On behalf of University College's Center for Freshman Year (UCFY), I welcome you to the LSU family. UCFY plays an important role in advising and guiding your new LSU student through the start of a successful undergraduate career. The Center for Freshman Year is the academic home for most new freshman, except for those students pursuing majors offered by the Colleges of Agriculture, Art & Design, and Music & Dramatic Arts. UCFY offers academic advising, career guidance, personal guidance, and navigation of LSU policy and procedures. As your LSU student adjusts to campus, we are here to support him/her with one-on-one, personal connections with individual academic counselors. Please encourage your LSU student to take advantage of our services.

Appointments are encouraged by visiting our website www.uc.lsu.edu, calling 225-578-6822, or by emailing ucinfo@lsu.edu, as well as walk in visits. LSU University College is located at 150 Allen Hall (next to Middleton Library in the Quad) and is open Monday – Friday, 8 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. We are Where Excellence Begins.

Geaux Tigers!

R. Paul Ivey

Executive Director, LSU University College

3 Things Every UCFY Student Needs to Know

1. How to read a degree audit: The degree audit report is a valuable tool for academic planning, because it lists the courses the student has taken, the degree requirements he/she has fulfilled, and the requirements that remain to be completed.
2. Senior college admission requirements: Each senior college has a list of requirements that must be met to move from UCFY into the college. Generally, there are minimum credit hours to be completed, a minimum GPA, and for some programs, certain courses must be completed. This information can be found in Experience LSU (pages 3-6).
3. CATS critical requirements: These are the requirements that students must meet each semester to maintain academic progress in their chosen major. Failure to remain "on track" may dictate a required change of major. More information can be found here.

Every UCFY student is encouraged to visit a UCFY academic counselor to familiarize themselves with these items.

For a successful semester, add these events to your calendar!
