Dear Tufts Community,

In our inaugural fall 2020 edition of the University Chaplaincy ENews we are pleased to share announcements about the chaplaincy and upcoming programming:

- "Friendship is intimate and ordinary. It can also be revolutionary." - Isabel Wilkerson
- "The StAAR Center (Student Accessibility and Academic Resource) offers workshops throughout the semester to help students navigate their college transitions. More information is available on their website.
- "The Venerable Priya Sraman, Buddhist Chaplain, will be offering a series of meditation sessions starting this week. Each session will include a different form of meditation: on Mondays and Fridays, 12 p.m. - 1 p.m. ET, a shorter meditation; on Tuesdays and Thursdays, 8:30 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. ET, a full hour of meditation. In addition, the Noonday Prayer and Check-In with Protestant Chaplain Dan Bell will continue on Wednesdays, 12:30 p.m. - 1:15 p.m. ET.
- "Preeta Banerjee, Hindu Advisor, will be working with the Hindu Students Council to build a community of faith and understanding. Preeta says, "I am honored to be the first Hindu Advisor, and I look forward to working with our Hindu Students Council to support and enrich their Hindu faith and culture.""
- "The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of the Tufts community. Our chaplains have contributed to the program offering a diverse array of spiritual practices, including nature walks, experimenting with shared spiritual practices from different religious and philosophical traditions. Several of our chaplains have contributed to the program offering a diverse array of spiritual practices, including nature walks, experimenting with shared spiritual practices from different religious and philosophical traditions."
- "The Tisch College is also expanding and enhancing two existing programs. Tisch Fund internships in 2020 campaign organizations."
- "Additional funding for projects that address racial injustice. You can learn more about these projects on the Tisch Fund website.
- "Jewish Chaplain David Gross, in collaboration with Rabbi Naftali Brawer, has developed a program that seeks to connect students with Jewish faith and community. The program includes Shabbat dinners and a series of lectures and events. For more information, contact Rabbi Naftali Brawer or call CMHS at 617-627-3360."
- "We welcome Muslim chaplainship Walker Bristol, Humanist chaplainship Dana Robert, and Venerable Priya Sraman, Buddhist chaplainship."
- "Would like to obtain a counselor’s perspective about a particular problem or issue (for example, being 18 due to Rosh Hashanah observances."
- "Jew for a moment, I come into the peace of wild things; I see thealom and the great heron feeds."
- "When the master asked the man who built the house, ‘Whom do you serve?’, he answered, ‘My lord, for you six months, and for anyone else as long as I live.’"
- "Life is like a cup that God hands us and we fill it as we choose."
- "The StAAR Center (Student Accessibility and Academic Resource) offers workshops throughout the semester to help students navigate their college transitions. More information is available on their website.
- "There are moments in life when we feel completely overwhelmed by the demands of our lives."
- "Would like to obtain a counselor’s perspective about a particular problem or issue (for example, being 18 due to Rosh Hashanah observances.
- "Jew for a moment, I come into the peace of wild things; I see thealom and the great heron feeds."
- "When the master asked the man who built the house, ‘Whom do you serve?’, he answered, ‘My lord, for you six months, and for anyone else as long as I live.’"
- "Life is like a cup that God hands us and we fill it as we choose."
- "Jew for a moment, I come into the peace of wild things; I see thealom and the great heron feeds."

For the Zoom links to the offerings listed above, please visit our website.

If you have any questions or would like to find bios and additional information contact Muslim chaplainship Walker Bristol, Humanist chaplainship Dana Robert, and Venerable Priya Sraman, Buddhist chaplainship.

In our inaugural fall 2020 edition of the University Chaplaincy ENews we are pleased to share announcements about the chaplaincy and upcoming programming:

- "Friendship is intimate and ordinary. It can also be revolutionary." - Isabel Wilkerson
- "The StAAR Center (Student Accessibility and Academic Resource) offers workshops throughout the semester to help students navigate their college transitions. More information is available on their website.
- "The Venerable Priya Sraman, Buddhist Chaplain, will be offering a series of meditation sessions starting this week. Each session will include a different form of meditation: on Mondays and Fridays, 12 p.m. - 1 p.m. ET, a shorter meditation; on Tuesdays and Thursdays, 8:30 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. ET, a full hour of meditation. In addition, the Noonday Prayer and Check-In with Protestant Chaplain Dan Bell will continue on Wednesdays, 12:30 p.m. - 1:15 p.m. ET.
- "Preeta Banerjee, Hindu Advisor, will be working with the Hindu Students Council to build a community of faith and understanding. Preeta says, "I am honored to be the first Hindu Advisor, and I look forward to working with our Hindu Students Council to support and enrich their Hindu faith and culture.""
- "The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of the Tufts community. Our chaplains have contributed to the program offering a diverse array of spiritual practices, including nature walks, experimenting with shared spiritual practices from different religious and philosophical traditions. Several of our chaplains have contributed to the program offering a diverse array of spiritual practices, including nature walks, experimenting with shared spiritual practices from different religious and philosophical traditions."
- "The Tisch College is also expanding and enhancing two existing programs. Tisch Fund internships in 2020 campaign organizations."
- "Additional funding for projects that address racial injustice. You can learn more about these projects on the Tisch Fund website.
- "Jewish Chaplain David Gross, in collaboration with Rabbi Naftali Brawer, has developed a program that seeks to connect students with Jewish faith and community. The program includes Shabbat dinners and a series of lectures and events. For more information, contact Rabbi Naftali Brawer or call CMHS at 617-627-3360."
- "We welcome Muslim chaplainship Walker Bristol, Humanist chaplainship Dana Robert, and Venerable Priya Sraman, Buddhist chaplainship."
- "Would like to obtain a counselor’s perspective about a particular problem or issue (for example, being 18 due to Rosh Hashanah observances.
- "Jew for a moment, I come into the peace of wild things; I see thealom and the great heron feeds."
- "When the master asked the man who built the house, ‘Whom do you serve?’, he answered, ‘My lord, for you six months, and for anyone else as long as I live.’"
- "Life is like a cup that God hands us and we fill it as we choose."
- "Would like to obtain a counselor’s perspective about a particular problem or issue (for example, being 18 due to Rosh Hashanah observances.
- "Jew for a moment, I come into the peace of wild things; I see thealom and the great heron feeds."
- "When the master asked the man who built the house, ‘Whom do you serve?’, he answered, ‘My lord, for you six months, and for anyone else as long as I live.’"
- "Life is like a cup that God hands us and we fill it as we choose."
- "Jew for a moment, I come into the peace of wild things; I see thealom and the great heron feeds."

For the Zoom links to the offerings listed above, please visit our website.

If you have any questions or would like to find bios and additional information contact Muslim chaplainship Walker Bristol, Humanist chaplainship Dana Robert, and Venerable Priya Sraman, Buddhist chaplainship.