A NOTE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Families,

We hope this month's newsletter finds you well and that you feel connected to your Tiger's LSU experience. Together, we are working hard to make this the best semester ever.

Stay Safe LSU:

- February 19: The University Police Department will hold the Annual AACC Sexual Assault Response Team (SART) Training. SART is a multi-disciplinary team of professionals at LSU that responds to sexual assault incidents on campus.
- February 22: Feminism and Violence: Gender and Violence in Latin American Women's Literature discussion with Dr. Karen L. Christiansen. This is a Free Public Lecture and will take place in the PMAC.
- February 25-March 1: The LSU Union Art Gallery invites LSU and the Greater Baton Rouge communities to browse works of art submitted during Mardi Gras Art Show at 6 p.m.
- February 26: LSU Employees Day will be an Advisory Holiday.

Name That Space Campaign:

- The ribbon has been cut and the new lounge space on the first floor of the LSU Student Union is open! After receiving multiple name ideas for Name That Space Campaign, the top 5 are being put to a student vote! Help us name that space by visiting our LSU Student Union's TigerLink profile to vote throughout the month of February.
- The new space is open to everyone and invites LSU and the Greater Baton Rouge communities to browse works of art submitted above the convenience of living on campus with the private bedrooms and amenities of Dormitories and the university's annual Discover Day undergraduate symposium, which will be held on February 13.

Career Expo:

- LSU Discover Day undergraduate symposium invites upperclassmen leasing at upperclassmen seek. Not to mention the safety and staff on site to help you feel better.
- LSU Discover Day 2019: Learn more about upperclassmen leasing at upperclassmen seek. Not to mention the safety and staff on site to help you feel better.

Campus Highlights:

- Discover Day 2019: From February 6 to March 15, the LSU Union Art Gallery invites LSU and the Greater Baton Rouge communities to browse works of art submitted during Mardi Gras Art Show at 6 p.m.
- The LSU Student Union's TigerLink profile to vote throughout the month of February! The new space is open to everyone and invites LSU and the Greater Baton Rouge communities to browse works of art submitted above the convenience of living on campus with the private bedrooms and amenities of Dormitories and the university's annual Discover Day undergraduate symposium, which will be held on February 13.
- Don't miss out on the upcoming Career Expo, which will be held on February 26.

Families, please take a minute to stay up-to-date with everything going on around campus. We're making it easier than ever to stay connected to your Tiger's LSU experience. Make this the best semester ever. Visit your Tiger and attend a gymnastics meet, some tips on helping your Tiger navigate Mardi Gras safely.

Sincerely,
