A NOTE FROM THE PRESIDENT

February 2019

To our LSU Families,

Thank you for your continued support of LSU and our students. I especially want to thank you for your support of our Tiger Families. The success of our students is a reflection of the support we provide to them. This support includes the efforts of our Parent & Family Programs, which work to ensure our students have a positive experience while at LSU.

Stay connected to your Tiger's LSU experience by subscribing to our email list. This will allow you to receive the latest updates and events happening on campus.

Some upcoming programs and events include:

- LSU Dining: Featuring TigerCASH Restaurant & Retail Week, where students can enjoy a home-cooked meal and create their own menu at the TigerCASH Restaurant. Additionally, LSU Dining is offering a week-long event called 5 & The 459 Dining Halls, spotlighting the African American History and Culture Museum, Brookshire Military & Veterans Student Center, and the LSU Student Union.
- First Year Experience: Providing opportunities for students to learn about different major options, career options, financial management, study abroad, and more. There is also a TigerCASH Restaurant & Retail Week event where students can enjoy a home-cooked meal and create their own menu. Students are encouraged to participate in the event and support their Tigers.
- Bursar Operations: Supporting students by providing services such as initiating a drawing for door prizes, entering into a drawing for door prizes, and ensuring that students are aware of the assessment of a late fee.
- Career Planning: Providing a space for students to learn how to advantage of the services that the Olinde Career Center offers. The Olinde Career Center is also hosting a panel discussion with undergraduates and graduates of the university's student body. The exhibit is free & open to everyone.
- University Center for Freshman Year: Offering a TigerCASH Restaurant & Retail Week event where students can enjoy a home-cooked meal and create their own menu. Additionally, LSU Dining is offering a week-long event called 5 & The 459 Dining Halls, spotlighting the African American History and Culture Museum.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact us at 225-578-1173. We are here to support you and your family.

Sincerely,
