Autumn, and thanksgiving for the Earth's bounty. (Begins at sundown)

Monday, September 20, 2021

Tradition: Zoroastrianism

Feelings. On this day, Jains ask for forgiveness from their relatives and friends for any offense they may have.

The Paryusana Festival of Jain Digumbar Sect: A 10-day festival that is considered to be a holy convocation.

Tradition: Jainism

Das Laxana Festival

Harvard Divinity School. To see more upcoming religious holidays and festivals, please follow the link to the Chaplaincy website.

Day 3 of CAFE 2021

If you are interested in divinity school, curious about which divinity school would be the best match for you, thinking about chaplaincy? Join seven divinity school to hear about what to expect at divinity school, learn what makes each unique.

A More Perfect Union: A New Vision for Building the Beloved Community Book Discussion

Speakers this semester include Sonia Raman, Peter Beinart, Isabel Wilkerson, Jan Grabowski, Imari Paris Jeffries, Rodrigo de la Calle, and others.

A Reflection from Our Catholic Chaplain

Our chaplaincy works to support the Tufts community in many different ways. We provide spiritual and religious leadership, counseling, and support to students, faculty, and staff. We also sponsor events and programs that promote interfaith dialogue and understanding. If you have any questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to reach out to us.

November 11, 2021—Veteran’s Day Observance

Taking Action: How can Tufts University be more intentional about being with people? This program is a chance to get beneath the surface, to see another and to be intentional about being with people. This program is a chance to get beneath the surface, to see another and to be intentional about being with people.

They committed to gifting an hour of their time each week to another person. During this hour, they explored the feelings, thoughts, and emotions that came up.

During this hour, they explored the feelings, thoughts, and emotions that came up. The conversation was spontaneous, and it was amazing. It was a gift that I received.

It was simple and beautiful and something I would have taken for granted at another moment in time. But that spontaneous conversation I had with two students after mass. It is with permission that I share this story: Earlier in the week, I went to a Protestant Evening Worship.

We again with prayer and food for Jummah, and the sight of folks facing one another to lift up intentions during the day. And voices coalescing during the first Shabbat service, the warmth in the Interfaith Center when it was finally alive.

Moments of this transition to being together safely and moving towards an embodied WE. It was in the sound of their voices when we gather together.

Sponsored by the LGBT Center, TRANScend Connection is an online support space for trans and/or non-binary students at Tufts, facilitated by Nic Wildes, LMHC (they/them) and Emma Rawls, MSW (she/they). The group will be held on Zoom and can register, and must present their Tufts ID before entering. To learn more, please visit the chaplaincy website.

Welcome Back!

Theological Seminary (New York), University of Chicago Divinity School, Vanderbilt Divinity School, and Yale Divinity School.

A short program with leaders in civic life to share their perspective.