other faiths and experiences. I can reach out to other first-year students or chaplaincy.tufts.edu

The harvest season. It is a time of thanksgiving for God's presence in creation and among the Jewish people. The

Mon., Sep. 20 – Mon., Sep. 27, 2021
Sukkot

Autumnal equinox and the second harvest festival, celebrating the equivalence of light and dark, the arrival of

Tradition: Wicca/Paganism
Mabon

Sun., Sep. 12 – Thu., Sep. 16, 2021

Day of Paryusana is the most solemn occasion of forgiveness and the examination of one's own thoughts and

During these days, Jains impose some restraints on their daily activities by fasting, meditation and prayer. The last

Tradition: Jainism

Sat., Sep. 11 – Mon., Sep. 20, 2021
Bond

on Zoom for virtual religious site visits, and in our host communities for outdoor visits and historical tours. Over 40 seventh annual Pre-Orientation Program, CAFE (Conversation, Action, Faith, and Education). CAFE is an interfaith-and expertise with the Tufts community. The Solomont Speaker Series, formerly known as the Tisch College

short, brings to campus (virtually and in-person) a diverse group of leaders in civic life to share their perspective

See website for dates and times, held virtually students at Tufts, facilitated by Nic Wildes, LMHC (they/them) and Emma Rawls, MSW (she/they). The group will be

Tuesdays, Twice per month, 7:00 p.m. - 8:15 p.m., held virtually framing for our work. To donate, please click on the button below. Thank you for your generosity.

The first Buddhist Mindfulness Sangha meditation of the semester, September 13, 2021

Yom Kippur meals will be held in Miller Hall Tent outside the

A More Perfect Union: A New Vision for Building the Beloved Community Book Discussion President Rev. Adam Taylor as they discuss Adam's new book,

FREE ZUMBA, 5:00 - 5:30 p.m.
Welcome Back Picnic with the Muslim Student Association
Friday, September 17, 5:00 p.m. - 6:30 p.m. on the Academic Quad

To mark the 20th anniversary of 9/11, the University Chaplaincy invites you to a community discussion on the participation in the city of Medford’s 20th anniversary rememberance of 9/11 the chapel bells will toll on Saturday minute documentary, which you can find linked below. Kaur will be our speaker for this year's endowed Russell

To endow the Series and recognizes the many way in which Alan and Susan Solomont have served and supported Distinguished Speaker Series, was made possible by a generous gift from the Solomonts in the spring of 2021 to and expertise with the Tufts community. The Solomont Speaker Series, formerly known as the Tisch College

short, brings to campus (virtually and in-person) a diverse group of leaders in civic life to share their perspective

See website for dates and times, held virtually

students at Tufts, facilitated by Nic Wildes, LMHC (they/them) and Emma Rawls, MSW (she/they). The group will be

Tuesdays, Twice per month, 7:00 p.m. - 8:15 p.m., held virtually

The Solomont Speaker Series, formerly known as the Tisch College

short, brings to campus (virtually and in-person) a diverse group of leaders in civic life to share their perspective

See website for dates and times, held virtually