The Peabody

THE ROBERT S. PEABODY INSTITUTE OF ARCHAEOLOGY

Peabody Newsletter APRIL 2021

On the Cover

Each year Andover celebrates the Spring season with the blossoming of over 40 cherry trees on campus. There are fourteen ornamental cherry trees such as this one that grow along Phillips Street behind the Peabody. Their colors decorate campus bringing nuances of spring and new beginnings. For more history and photos of these beautiful trees explore the story here!

Welcome to this month's Peabody Institute newsletter! We hope you enjoy the pieces on Scotty MacNeish and the backstory on one of our most intriguing early photos. Also, check out upcoming talks in the Diggin' In series and our offer to assist other institutions with repatriation. Enjoy!

Need Help with NAGPRA?

Contributed by Ryan Wheeler

At the New England Museum Association annual meeting in November 2020 the Peabody Institute partnered with experts from tribes, museums, and federal agencies to discuss NAGPRA. Read on to learn more about the Peabody's endeavors to help other institutions along with helpful NAGPRA resources.
