The Peabody is proud to present a commitment to working with Indigenous communities to ensure that ancestors, funerary belongings, sacred objects, and objects of cultural patrimony are repatriated in a respectful and timely fashion. Read on to learn more about the repatriation process and the Peabody’s current repatriation efforts.

Leroy Jimerson Jr. ’41: From Gowanda to Gemini

Today’s Phillips Academy students often ask about the students of the past. Since November is National Native American Heritage Month, the topic of Indigenous alumni often comes up. Learn about the life and work of PA alumnus, Leroy Spencer Jimerson, Jr. below!

Home to Cape Cod

On November 9th, the Peabody partnered with the Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology (PMAE) of Harvard University to repatriate ancestors and belongings to representatives of the Wampanoag Confederacy. Learn more about this project here!
