THE PEABODY

THE ROBERT S. PEABODY INSTITUTE OF ARCHAEOLOGY

Peabody Newsletter NOVEMBER 2020

On the Cover

Hotevilla Glassworks - To celebrate National Native American Heritage Month, the Peabody would like to highlight another native artist and educator - Ramson Lomatewama - from Hotevilla, Arizona. Ramson is the first and only Hopi glassblower as well as a traditional katsina doll carver, jeweler, published poet, and consultant. Ramson currently teaches glass art for the Hopitutuqayki (The Hopi School), an arts apprenticeship program located on the Hopi reservation. The Peabody was fortunate to host a talk with Ramson and Sarah Driscoll's English class earlier this fall and look forward to future engagements with Ramson and his art.

The Peabody is proud of our longstanding commitment to being the stewards of community belongings and the work we undertake to return ancestors and belongings to their families and communities. In this newsletter learn more about our repatriation efforts. We are also proud to highlight the life of LeRoy Jimerson Jr. '41, a notable Native American alumnus of Phillips Academy.
