Dr. Tanya Das, Ph.D. ’17 leads a new generation of senior leaders at the Department of Energy. The Biden Administration recently appointed Dr. Tanya Das as Chief of Staff for the Department of Energy’s Office of Science.

Ben Feigin ’97 wins big as the Executive Producer behind “Schitt’s Creek”, helping the show make history with a clean sweep at the Emmys and earning himself an Emmy for “Outstanding Comedy Series.”

Together, UC and the UC Student Association are fighting to increase federal financial aid by calling on Congress to double the maximum Pell Grant award.

Dogs’ highly evolved noses can rapidly detect the SARS-CoV-2 virus. Learn how dogs can sniff out COVID-19

Join us for a discussion on the traumatic toll the pandemic has taken on leaders, with strategies you can implement to prioritize your needs and those of your team.

“This work has affected our culinary staff to the heart. They are providing food to the local community where they live each day.” —Jill Horst, Executive Director of Campus Dining

Researchers discover an immense hydrocarbon cycle in the world’s oceans. Learn more about this unexpected finding

Researchers uncover how some animals sense the gritty texture of their food. Learn how there’s more to taste than flavor

Experience the award-winning event for the best 3-minute talk by a graduate student. $16,000 in cash and prizes are on the line in this fast-paced competition.

Researchers uncover how some animals sense the gritty texture of their food. Learn how there’s more to taste than flavor

Enjoy this stimulating live event

Subscribe to The Current, the official source of news for our campus community.

If you do not wish to receive any emails from UC Santa Barbara Institutional Advancement (this includes event invitations, newsletters, networking opportunities and stories of philanthropy), you can opt out of them ALL using TrueRemove®.