A Reflection from your Catholic Chaplain

Dear Jumbos,

On Sunday night, after we celebrated our second-to-last Mass of the academic year, thirteen Catholic student leaders squeezed into Chaplain Elyse's office to begin the Executive Board transition process. Graduating seniors welcomed the new e-board members into the fold, sharing the practical wisdom they have gleaned during their tenures leading the Catholic Community at Tufts. Over the past few years, these seniors have helped knit our community back into being. We began our time together with a virtual day retreat in 2020, and this past March, they organized a weekend-long retreat for almost forty undergraduate and graduate students. It has been a great gift to walk beside them.

Tonight, at the University Chaplaincy Senior Awards, we will lift up seniors who have provided leadership and care to our many religious and philosophical communities and to the wider interfaith landscape of Tufts. Each of the forty nominations was written with such thoughtfulness, celebrating the unique contributions and gifts of each of these student leaders. We make a point to share those nominations with them so they know how others see them.

During a year that has been so tumultuous and, at times, painful, I have been awed by the deep spirit of care and kindness I have seen—in our interfaith spaces and communities especially. It is in that tradition that I turn to one of the resources in my life that has helped carve a path of empathy and care: poetry. This piece by Catholic poet and activist Denise Levertov has been a friend to me for nearly twenty years. With gratitude, I share it with you today.

A Gift by Denise Levertov

Just when you seem to yourself
nothing but a flimsy web

of questions, you are given the questions of others to hold
in the emptiness of your hands,
songbird eggs that can still hatch
if you keep them warm,
butterflies opening and closing themselves
in your cupped palms, trusting you not to injure their scintillant fur, their dust.
You are given the questions of others
as if they were answers to all you ask. Yes, perhaps this gift is your answer.

As we head into this finals period and navigate the typical and atypical uncertainties of the end of the semester, how might you take time to express gratitude, care, or kindness to those in your orbit who have inspired you or comforted you during this year?

Warmly,
Lynn Cooper

Spotlight: Grace Rotermund, A24 on her ExCollege Class

Senior Grace Rotermund is an important part of the University Chaplaincy community – she is President Emeritus of COFFEE (Community of Faith Exploration and Engagement), and instructor at the ExCollege. We wanted to highlight the interview that the ExCollege did with her about her class EXP-0055: Zoroastrianism: From Ancient Times to Modern Impact. We appreciated her integrated perspective on art, history, culture, and religion, especially as it relates to the ancient and modern Zoroastrian tradition. She writes, “To understand a region’s culture, in my mind, is to look at the religions popular in the area over time and to inspect where their values came from. Zoroastrianism’s long history is full of key details that might explain why other things are how they are today. As for what students may take away, I hope that this class teaches people to look a little deeper at how different cultural aspects influence each other.” Find the full article through the link below.

University Chaplaincy Awards Night and special Voices for Peace and Light performance!

Wednesday, May 1, 5:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m., Interfaith Center (58 Winthrop St.)

This year, the University Chaplaincy hosts its third annual celebration to honor and uplift the wonderful contributions of our seniors and young alumni across all of our religious and philosophical communities, which also features music by the Chaplaincy interfaith ensemble, Voices for Peace and Light. Our Senior & Young Alumni Awards provide an opportunity for our community to nominate and celebrate our graduating seniors and recent alumni, and the awards are themed according to our core mission commitments: pastoral/spiritual care; supporting religious, spiritual, and philosophical communities; education on spiritual and ethical issues; and multifaith engagement. The Young Alumni award is for a recent graduate (2019-2023) who has provided leadership for current students and the University Chaplaincy through offering support, encouragement, guidance and engagement. Please reach out to University Chaplain Elyse Nelson Winger with any questions.

Counseling and Mental Health Services Available During Summer

Counseling and Mental Health Services (CMHS) is open during summer break from 9am-4pm, Monday through Friday (closed 12pm-1pm for lunch). CMHS will also be closed on May 27, June 19, and July 4.

Students Staying in Massachusetts: If you are residing in Massachusetts over the summer, you can work with CMHS for individual therapy and medication management throughout the summer.

Students who will be outside of Massachusetts: CMHS cannot provide counseling to students outside of Massachusetts. However, if you need help finding care off-campus (including in whatever state you're in during the summer), you can still work with our Care Manager. Other non-clinical services, like consultations if you're worried about a friend, are also available to you over the summer.

Graduating Students: Students graduating this May can receive care at CMHS until August 19.

Counselor on Call: The Counselor on Call is available over the summer. If you or someone around you is experiencing a mental health emergency you can call CMHS anytime, even after business hours. Call 617-627-3360 and follow the prompts to reach the Counselor on Call.

Great Lent

Mon., Mar. 18 – Sat., May 4, 2024

Tradition: Christianity-Orthodox

In Orthodox churches, the first day of Lent marks the beginning of the Great Fast, the final six weeks of a 10-week period leading up to Holy Week and Easter (Pascha). In the churches that follow the Gregorian calendar, Lent is a six-week observance (40 days excluding Sundays) beginning with Ash Wednesday and culminating in Holy Week. It is a time of repentance and sacrifice in preparation for Easter.

Ghambar Maidyozarem

Tue., Apr. 30 – Sat., May 4, 2024

Tradition: Zoroastrianism

Celebrates the creation of the sky and harvesting of the winter crop.

Celebrates the creation of the sky and harvesting of the winter crop.

Holy Thursday/Maundy Thursday

Thu., May 2, 2024

Tradition: Christianity-Orthodox

Commemorates the institution of the Lord's Supper/the Eucharist by Jesus prior to his arrest and execution. "Maundy" is derived from the Latin text of John 13:34, in which Jesus gives a mandatum novum ("new commandment"). The date observed by Protestants and Roman Catholics differs from the date observed by Orthodox Christians.

Holy Friday

Fri., May 3, 2024

Tradition: Christianity-Orthodox

The day that commemorates the Passion of Jesus Christ, i.e., his death by crucifixion. It is the Orthodox equivalent of "Good Friday."

Easter Sunday (Pascha)

Sun., May 5, 2024

Tradition: Christianity-Orthodox

Celebrates the resurrection from death of Jesus Christ. It is the oldest and most important festival in the Christian year and initiates the 50-day period culminating in Pentecost. Protestant and Roman Catholic Christians often observe Easter on a different date than Orthodox Christians.

Yom Hashoah (Holocaust Remembrance Day)

Sun., May 5, 2024

Tradition: Judaism

Memorializes the six million Jews who died as victims of the Nazis during World War II and emphasizes respect for human dignity. Its observance is not limited to Jews. Begins at sundown.

Ascension of Jesus

Thu., May 9, 2024

Tradition: Christianity-Protestant, Christianity-Roman Catholic

The celebration of Jesus' ascension into heaven and enthronement as universal sovereign. It comes 40 days after Easter. The date observed by Protestants and Roman Catholics is often different from the date observed by Orthodox Christians.

Wesak (Buddha Day)

Wed., May 15, 2024

Tradition: Buddhism

The commemoration of Buddha's birth, enlightenment, and parinirvana, celebrated on the day of the full moon of the sixth lunar month in Southeast Asian cultures; in Tibetan culture, Wesak commemorates only the the enlightenment and parinirvana. The dates of this celebration vary significantly among Buddhist cultures and communities.

Pentecost

Sun., May 19, 2024

Tradition: Christianity-Protestant, Christianity-Roman Catholic

(Or Whitsunday.) The commemoration of the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the disciples of Jesus following his ascension, Pentecost is considered the "birthday" of the Christian church (Acts 2:1-11). It comes 50 days after Easter (Pascha, Orthodox Easter). Roman Catholic and Protestant Christians often observe Pentecost on a different date from Orthodox Christians.
