JULY 2022

On the Cover

We had the pleasure of hosting the Dig This! class for the 2022 Andover Summer Session. Students learned more about archaeology and took part in their own archaeological excavations at the Mansion House site, located on the Phillips Academy Andover campus.

Welcome to our summer newsletter! Take a peak for unusual discoveries in the collection, future archaeologists, and updates on summer session's Dig This! course. Also, season five of Diggin' In has begun—make sure you sign up for our virtual series. There's still more summer to come!

Archaeological (Career) Explorations

Contributed by Lindsay Randall

Peabody Curator of Education, Lindsay Randall, explores an archaeological excavation located on the property of the Jeremiah Lee Mansion, owned and operated by the Marblehead Museum. This site is the SECOND known, still standing, extant slave quarters in New England. Read on to learn more about this site!
